"I first met Bhaskar during a motivation workshop and quickly recognized his unique qualities. Since then, I've attended an international retreat with him, participated in a personal workshop, and collaborated with him professionally at BALNEA spa + réserve thermale.

Bhaskar's ability to understand people deeply, identify their strengths and weaknesses, and guide them toward growth is remarkable. As a well-rounded coach and mentor, he draws on diverse life experiences (maybe lives) and training to deliver simple yet effective exercises that enhance communication, focus on goals, and create actionable plans. His witty intelligence and attentive listening are central to his talent.

My only hesitation in recommending Bhaskar is the worry he might become too sought after to guide me, my team, or my close ones!"

"If being free – deeply and truly free – is of any interest whatsoever, Bhaskar can guide your journey with a unique combination of presence, skills and insights. The result of his coaching is a conscious, replicable process of revealing a truth deeper than whatever challenges you now carry, which empowers you to choose whether you want to continue struggling or to naturally transform instead. What I've so appreciated with Bhaskar is the depth of tuning in and revealing what becomes effortlessly obvious when being aware, real and whole. I recommend him with joy to anyone."

“Thank you, Bhaskar, for this journey of Radical Transformation. The depth of your presence allowed me to dive deep, to change some key aspects of how I relate to myself and the world around me.

We visited painful emotions to drop the charges and touched blissful states of unity. That’s full-spectrum coaching! Thank you for opening up with me. Above all, I still hear your calm voice reminding me that I am a conscious being with choice.”

"I have been around high-quality people all my life, so I recognize someone who mastered his craft. I could definitely say that about Bhaskar. In addition, he is very much in touch with his softer side as a man which allows him to have a nice blend of keeping me accountable and being empathetic when there is a need for it.

I would recommend working with Bhaskar, especially if you have limiting beliefs and patterns that keep you stuck in old stories. Working with Bhaskar, I have elevated my ability to live more skillfully and expect much more from myself just because I feel more confident about who I am."

“Bhaskar is a world-class mentor. Attentive, generous, tactful — he lends an enlightening hand, truly. Saying that my conversations with Bhaskar have radically transformed me is not an overstatement. If 'radical' means 'complete,' then his guidance has in fact clarified and brightened every area of my life. If it means 'relating to the roots,' then I can say that he, as a mentor, knows to ask the questions that reach deep and propel you forward with willingness and ease.

He is, after all, as skillful in his art as he knows his mentees can be. I am, and will continue to be, immensely grateful for the wisdom I've gained during my mentorship, and for Bhaskar's genuine presence along my path.”

"Bhaskar is one of the best coaches I have had the good fortune to meet. As a coach myself, my bar is high. What I liked was the power of his questions and his way of listening, summarizing, and capturing what was most important. The outcome is what matters. I was feeling stuck, and not motivated to move forward on projects. Bhaskar used an efficient process to get to some suppressed emotions and false beliefs. I was worried it would be long and painful but thanks to Bhaskar's skillful ways and incredible wisdom it was rather quick and painless.

Today, I am back to putting one action in place at a time with faith that I am on the right path. I know my priorities and how to stay focused."

“Your authentic presence and your ever-shining kindness have left an indelible mark on my life. Your coaching about setting goals and manifesting their accomplishments has already begun to bear fruit and thanks to you I have found the boldness I needed to embark with both feet on the journey towards my true purpose. Your warmth and contagious desire to make the world a better place translate into actions which demonstrate just how much you genuinely care for each who crosses paths with you.”

"A journey with Bhaskar is one of deep transformation. I have known Bhaskar for nearly 10 years now under different capacities, and although I was fully aware of his knowledge and wisdom on spirituality, and his magnificent ability to align body, mind and spirit to a higher state, it is only in these coaching sessions, that I discovered Bhaskar's true talent at piercing through one's being and unearthing all the blockages one places on the psyche. Bhaskar's methods are fast and effective, and the results immediately ripple into every aspect of one's life.

I highly recommend Bhaskar to anyone who is looking to upgrade themselves, and especially to professionals looking to bring a higher state of consciousness to their practice. Thank you, Bhaskar, for sharing your gift."

"Bhaskar – our interactions have brought me profound insights that I look forward to implementing in my life. I appreciate how you showed up to each session and created an energizing and authentic experience for me.

I've learned a lot from you, and I am truly grateful to have come across your program."

– Christina Drakopoulos | School Teacher

"Every session came as a surprise, exploring uncharted inner territories and discovering so many gems to pick up, examine and rule out as no longer needed. We respected the algorithm of what my body, mind and spirit asked for, examining patterns, and clearing energies and defaults.

No lie, decades of spiritual, healing and pattern-breaking work had vanished from my being. My understanding of myself and the world around me was deeply challenged. Every session was a revelation, and every bit of homework I was given, I still apply because this work, though guided by his mastery, is still always ours to do when the Zoom call ends."

– Shari Reinhart | Writer

“Bhaskar, the definition of a lovely conscious being with a straight spine and a fully open heart. A wise and patient teacher who discerns one’s needs and goes straight to the point in a lighthearted manner. Through various discussions and exercises, he has brought forth the most luminous parts of my being. He saw and took the time to show me my true potential.

I will forever be grateful to have worked with this caring man who has a gift for bringing forward the lost pieces of one’s consciousness and mending them back together. I am so proud to be able to call him my mentor.”

– Serina Ayotte | Indigenous Artist

“Bhaskar changes lives. His years of soaking up ancient and modern knowledge don't even hold a candle up to the immense light of intuitive wisdom that Bhaskar is filled with. Very few people are what Bhaskar is, or have what he has; it is difficult to put into words. In essence, you will learn a lot from Bhaskar. You will be inspired. You will make habit changes (in thought, intention, and behaviour). You will become more "yourself". You will feel closer to the mystery of existence and of our world. You will feel a little more free.

Bhaskar is a grounded teacher who hasn't lost his sense of childlike wonder and play, and his way of being in the world is contagious.”

– Lauren Deckelbaum | Psychologist, Researcher

"I committed to a six-month radical transformation through one-on-one sessions with Bhaskar Goswami. From the very beginning, Bhaskar helped me achieve an inner union state regarding my deep-rooted fears and opposing polarities that created struggle and unrest. His insightful guidance led me to newfound vitality, inner faith, and the strength to pursue my desires with a warrior's determination.

This experience has opened me to the possibilities my heart truly desires. Bhaskar's mentorship has been a profound revelation, allowing me to discover and follow a life full of meaning and potential. His approach is both deep and transformative, and I highly recommend his services to anyone seeking to realize their full potential, both professionally and personally."

"Thank you so much for guiding me to go deeper about the learning experiences of my journey. It's not something I had done so profoundly and consciously before - but when I did, it opened up my heart immensely. Like a flow of a river that gushed out from inside. Your guidance and asking me the right questions, made me realize the sacred moment of transformation. I could articulate it so well - which I had not done before.

You are an inspirational guide to help us see those moments, so that we can serve in our most authentic version. I'm looking forward to many more moments of transformation during our mentoring sessions."

“Information and awareness are key.
Knowledge is power and awareness is life.

Excelling in both, Bhaskar, through his teaching and practices, creates a powerful invitation to connect with yourself and your soul.

A light in any situation,
A journey towards your aspirations,
A treat for the mind, body and spirit.”

– David Lechable | Marketing Director,

“As a coach who needed deep and transformative coaching, I can attest there is no one like Bhaskar. Completely attuned to your nervous system, he can help extract the essence of your blockages like a skilled surgeon where you can see them, feel them, love them and release them. Don’t get me wrong, you do the heavy lifting, you do the work. He just has a way of making the invisible visible.

Bhaskar’s work and gifts aren’t meant to merely be talked about, they must be experienced.”

– Deborah Ward | Senior Executive Coach

"I was facing challenges in my business, feeling stuck and struggling to generate momentum. Bhaskar is a masterful coach with an exceptional ability to help you find clarity, direction, and inner alignment. Through his deep presence, wisdom, and the use of powerful psychospiritual processes, he supported me in identifying and clearing internal blocks that were holding me back.

Not only is Bhaskar a master of the inner world, but he is also highly intuitive and deeply knowledgeable when it comes to supporting businesses with practical and actionable strategies. After implementing one of his suggestions, I immediately signed a new client.

Bhaskar creates a safe, supportive, and grounded container while helping you achieve real, tangible results. It's no wonder he is such a sought-after transformational mentor and guide. I highly recommend him to anyone seeking clarity, focus, and momentum in their personal or professional life."

– Jared Lim | Business Scaling Specialist

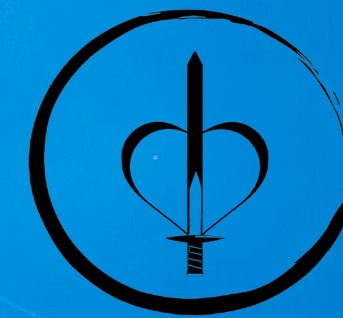

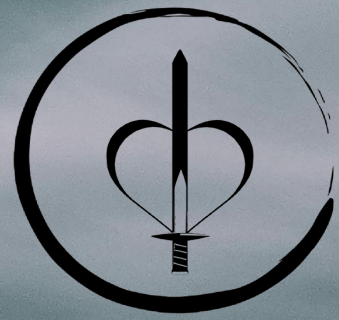

"My journey with Bhaskar has been amazing. It began with 2 retreats, during which he helped me, and the group, explore our inner worlds, connect with nature, and manifest our intentions. We then did some private coaching sessions together, which helped me to delve deeper, confront my fears, and release what was holding me back from being in touch with my essence.

What I also like about Bhaskar approach is the connection between the body, mind, and the emotion. As a business coach myself, I need to stay on top of my practice and every encounter with Bhaskar is an opportunity to reconnect, recharge and elevate my work. His integrated approach has a positive and lasting impact.

Bhaskar your presence is a gift. Thank you."

– Julie Gauvin | Executive Coach, Crysalia

He has a rare gift in the way he works with people. His presence and his skill as a master facilitator is unique and impactful.

If you have the opportunity to work with this man, whether in one on one sessions, or attending one of his retreats, do not hesitate. Your life will be forever changed, and your heart will be forever touched."
