

Chad is the True Conservative in the Race!

Senate District 29 is the most conservative State Senate seat in Utah and Republican candidate Chad Bennion was named by the conservative watchdog group, Utah Taxpayers Association, as one of the seven most conservative representatives in the entire state when he served in the House.

In contrast, our incumbent Senator, who has spent sixteen years in the Utah Legislature, often votes with moderates. Doubt these statements...

Chad Opposed the Name Change Process for Dixie State University

Chad would have NEVER agreed to sponsor legislation giving academics the right to recommend the name change!

The incumbent senator sponsored a bill enabling academics to recommend a name change for Dixie State University even though 85% of the residents of this area and 62% of the state of Utah opposed the name change.

Chad Opposes Spencer Cox's Woke Agenda

If elected, Chad will not give the chief executive a pass when he fails to reflect conservative values.

Seventy percent of the citizens of this District during the last primary voted for someone other than our incumbent Governor. Our current state Senator stood on the stage with him at the recent GOP Convention and endorsed the Governor's reelection bid.

This demonstrates how out of touch our current incumbent Senator is with his constituents and their strong feelings about the Governor not representing their conservative values and principles.

Chad Opposes Benefits to Illegal Immigrants

While Chad believes children need to be held harmless, that is the role of religious and charitable organizations. Government shouldn't create incentives, with taxpayer dollars, for illegals to cross our borders and break our laws.

The incumbent senator voted to gift to illegals health insurance, something even American families and small business owners struggle to provide. Very generous of him with your money!

Chad opposes New Taxes

Chad knows if he has the privilege of being your State Senator, he serves you, not other elected officials.

The incumbent senator voted to impose new taxes on services and businesses NOT previously taxed while claiming he is a conservative. You can't have it both ways. When other legislators want you to pass new taxes you can't cave in to their wishes.
