

Ani Dermenjian Bio

Ani Dermenjian has an extensive background in her contributions to the Malibu Community and her professional endeavors in the real estate industry. She is Executive Managing Director for the Architectural Division at Douglas Elliman Real Estate, where she brings 28+ years of experience in delivering the highest quality of service. She is a 2020 and 2021 Ellies Platinum Award Recipient, ranked #18 agent at Douglas Elliman California, and is in the top 5% of agents company-wide. She even served as President of the Malibu Association of REALTORS in 2020 and was recognized as Realtor of the year.

For Ani, relationships are at the forefront of her professional and personal accomplishments. She demonstrates an unwavering commitment toward her clients and is driven to exceed expectations. She deeply values her community and takes pride in her involvement in several organizations, such as being a mentor for Pepperdine University, starting the Malibu Veterans Day Public Ceremony in 2000, serving on numerous HOA Boards, and starting the Health and Wellness for Malibu Association of REALTORS.

Ani is constantly expanding her education and training to broaden her field of knowledge; in 2021, she took a Mediation Course at the Pepperdine Caruso School of Law and is considered a Mediator for the Malibu Association of Realtors.

Ani's inspiration and undying energy toward her profession come from running. She is an avid runner, with 11 full-marathons and several half-marathons under her belt. Ani is not one to give up when it comes to running, and the same can be said for her profession.
