

PERSONAL BIO

I am a creative at heart, with extensive experience in graphic design, photography, and videography. My passion for these fields drives me to explore new ways to tell stories through visual media, capturing moments and crafting designs that resonate deeply with audiences.

As a graphic designer, I love designing to tell a story. Every piece of art has a story behind it, and my goal is to ignite that with all my designs, especially yours! With a keen eye for detail and a strong sense of visual aesthetics, I specialize in creating unique and precise designs that effectively convey the essence of any business or client. You should be able to look at my work and feel how special it is.

Having worked with a diverse range of clients from various industries, I am skilled in developing creative solutions that meet the specific needs, goals, and vision of each client. Whether it's branding, logo design, print, or digital design, I take it personally to deliver high-quality work that exceeds expectations. My commitment to excellence ensures that each project is a success.

With a Bachelor's degree in Interactive Media Studies (IMS) from Miami of Ohio University, I am well-versed in the latest design software and tools. I am constantly seeking to expand my knowledge and skills in the field, staying up-to-date with industry trends and innovations. This commitment to continuous learning ensures that my work remains fresh, relevant, and impactful.

In addition to my technical expertise, I am also an excellent communicator. I collaborate effectively with clients and team members to achieve successful outcomes that fit their vision. My ability to listen, understand, and translate ideas into compelling designs makes me a valuable partner in any creative project.
