Public Conduct Policy	GG-020	424/23	Dec 15/23	6

Policy Objective:

The Purpose of this policy for the RV of Aquadeo is to establish a safe and welcoming environment for all individuals, including residents, visitors, and stakeholders.

1. Statement:

- a. This policy aims to allow for the expression of disappointment, frustration, or anger towards municipal services while maintaining professionalism and respect towards the Resort Village staff and Council. It also aims to implement procedures to restrict access to municipal spaces or services for individuals or groups exhibiting unacceptable behavior.
- b. The Resort Village of Aquadeo is committed to providing a safe, respectful community where individuals of all ages can enjoy various activities and services. This policy will be prominently displayed in all Resort Village owned facilities open to the public, and all members of the RV Council, Committees of Council, and Resort Village staff are expected to read and adhere to its contents. The policy is guided by the principles of rejecting violent, abusive, harassing, threatening, disrespectful, or hostile behavior, and providing a safe, positive, and respectful environment for volunteers, staff, and all users and guests occupying Resort Village owned facilities.

2. Authority:

- a. Section 92(b) of The Municipalities Act provides Councillors with the ability to develop and evaluate policies, services, and programs of the municipality. Section 8(1)(a) of The Municipalities Act provides that municipalities have a general power to pass bylaws including those respecting the peace, order, and good government of the municipality.

3. Definition of Violence or Anti-Social Behaviour

- a. For the purpose of this Policy, violence or anti-social behaviour is seen as, but is not limited to, the following behaviour:
  - i. Making unpleasant, disrespectful, or demeaning comments towards staff, Council, or other members of the public using Resort Village spaces or services, including profanity, rude or inappropriate language, name-calling, attempts to goad or incite anger in others, yelling or shouting.
  - ii. Treating the Resort Village's staff, Council, or other members of the public in a threatening, intimidating, abusive, or violent manner;

- Encouraging all members of the public to abide by the principles and provisions of this policy;
- Reporting any interaction that may constitute unacceptable behaviour to the CAO
- Collecting and providing supporting material relating to unacceptable behaviour to the CAO;
- As required, altering conditions regarding restriction of an individual or group through appeal process.

6. Response to Unacceptable Behaviour

- a. Where the CAO believes someone has committed unacceptable behaviour, they may decide on an appropriate response based on the severity of the behaviour.

Unacceptable behaviour is classed at one of three levels:

- Prohibiting attendance or limiting activities, interactions, or access to Resort Village spaces or services;
  - Limiting the number of complaints, inquiries, or requests the individual may submit to the Resort Village, including matters already addressed, except for Access to Information Requests made pursuant to The Local Authority Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, SS 1990-91, c L-27.1
  - Limiting the number of responses Resort Village staff may provide to complaints or inquiries regarding specific matters, including matters already addressed.
  - Requiring any in-person interaction Resort Village staff or Councillors to be in the presence of another member of Resort Village staff, Council, or other representatives of the Resort Village.
  - Limiting correspondence to a particular format, time, or duration.
  - Requiring correspondence to be directed only to specific Resort Village staff, Councillors, solicitors, or third-parties.
- b. These restrictions are designed to ensure that all individuals are able to interact with the Resort Village of Aquadeo staff in a safe and respectful manner.

7. Imposing Restrictions

- a. Based on the information provided by Staff and/or a Member of Council or information with the CAO's knowledge, a review shall be conducted by the CAO to determine if an individual's behaviour warrants the application of temporary restrictions. Each case should be considered on an individual basis. In conducting the review, the CAO will consider the specific circumstances of the matter as well as the following:
- i. The individual's personal circumstances, level of competency, literacy skills etc., which may be known to Staff;
  - ii. Whether the request or complaint has been dealt with in accordance with the relevant Resort Village procedures and statutory guidelines;
