

What are other songs or stories that have helped your testimony grow?
 Draw leaves on the plant and write down things you believe.

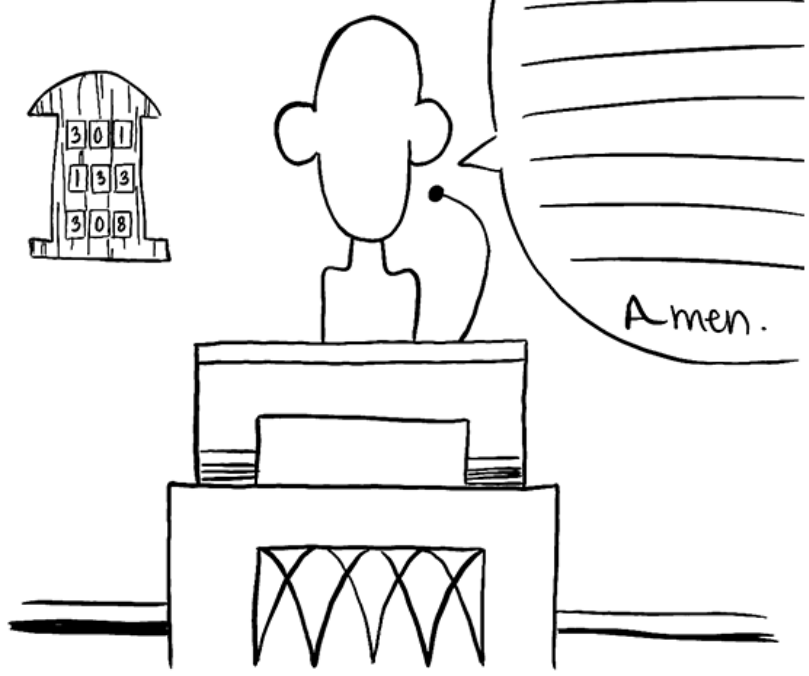

Write down some words from the song and decorate the hearts so they look how you feel.

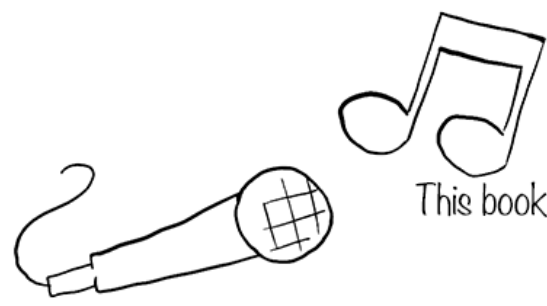

When you sing your primary testimony song do you feel something in your heart?

When we share what we believe that is bearing our testimony.

Draw yourself sharing your testimony and write down a few things you know.

My Testimony Primary Song Is

This book belongs to: