Two is the Magic Number on Stage: Jasmine Kara with Mike Rodgers

Experience the electric chemistry of Jasmine Kara with musical accompaniment support from Mike Rodgers, a powerhouse live-music duo merging distinct musical styles to create unforgettable performances. With their rich backgrounds and unique influences, Jasmine and Michael captivate audiences with a blend of soul, pop, blues, and rock, taking their listeners on an emotive journey with every note.

Jasmine Kara, a Swedish-Iranian singer, songwriter, and producer, has been a force in the global music scene since her 2010 breakthrough with Blues Ain't Nothing But a Good Woman Gone Bad. Known for her powerful voice and genre-defying sound, Jasmine has topped the charts not only with her own music but also as a successful songwriter, including her contribution to SuperM's chart-topping hit "100". Jasmine's raw authenticity, drawn from her incredible journey through both light and dark stages of life, is what makes her music resonate deeply with audiences across the world—from Sweden to Japan, the US, and beyond.

Joining her on stage is the multi-talented Mikel Rodgers, a Long Island native with a career as eclectic as his musical skills. Michael is a pianist, guitarist, and vocalist who has performed with various bands across New York and even lent his talents to All Elite Wrestling's live events in front of thousands at venues like the UBS Arena on Long Island, to the iconic Wembley Stadium.

With over two decades of experience as a music director and educator, Michael brings his world-class musicianship and a deep love for music of all kinds, from church choirs to punk rock and everything in between.

Together, Jasmine and Michael deliver dynamic, heartfelt performances that transcend musical boundaries, blending classic blues with modern pop and intricate acoustic arrangements. Whether you're looking for an intimate acoustic set or an electrifying full-stage experience, this duo promises to bring an unmatched energy and soulful sound to every venue.

"I've been around the blues and singers who are in touch with their soul my whole life. Jasmine Kara is the real deal! The blues like a taste of freedom has truly transformed this young singer. Her Iranian roots, her Swedish upbringing and her recent meeting with – and interpretation of – the American blues is an amazing testament to what a piece of universal language music is. And; to how different expressions of a longing for freedom always have had an underlying, common denominator." - Marshall Chess

"As a composer, a performer, and an arranger, there's nobody quite like Mike Rodgers. Classically trained, but with an undeniable love for rock and roll, Mike brings professionalism and his unique style to everything he does." - Dr. Tom Rizzuto, Professor of Music, Band member, and colleague

"A delight, a pro's pro." - Bryce Remsburg, All Elite Wrestling
