

Church of the Redeemer Council #1104, October, 2026

THE KNIGHT'S SCROLL

Brothers!

The first day of fall has come and gone and with it we are into October.

In the last month I have been busy traveling for work and pleasure - Ireland and the Outer Banks. During my travels I have reflected on this council and how fortunate Redeemer is to have such an active group. Time and again our council steps up - Haiti yard sale, chicken dinners, pancake breakfast, and many more.

October doesn't slow down. Upcoming events are the stew sale, Veteran's Appreciation Dinner at 395 and a vigil Mass at St. Mary's, and Columbus Day.

Galatians 6:9 tells us, "Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up."

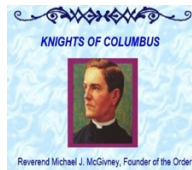

If every brother participated in just one event, imagine how much more we could accomplish.

Thank you to each and every brother for all that this council does.

Vivat Jesus!

Mark Borysewicz

Grand Knight, K of C Council 11042

The Church of the Redeemer K of C Council 11042 offers opportunities from which Catholic men can choose to volunteer a portion of their discretionary time to put their Faith in action in the parish and the local community, pleasing God and living Christianity in accord with our parish mission: "Everyone will know that you are my disciple if you love one another." John 13:35

Lord Jesus Christ, How often You told Your disciples and now us: "Do not be afraid: just have Faith." Dear Jesus, please deepen in us Faith, which enables us to surrender to You in body, mind, heart, and will each day, no matter what we are facing. As You deepen Faith within us, we are transformed, becoming less fearful and more trusting in Your promise to be with us always. Dear Jesus, in our daily prayer and especially during our participation in the Holy Mass and while adoring You in Your Real Presence in the tabernacle, deepen our Faith and banish our fear. Amen. Mary, Mother of the Church, and Blessed Michael McGivney, true models of surrendering to Faith, pray for us. K of C State Chaplain, Bishop Paul S. Loverde

Then Peter approaching asked Him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive him? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times." Mathew 18:21-22. This month, I challenge you to make a list of the people in your life – past and present – whom you find or have found difficult to forgive, and to sincerely pray for them each day.

Grand Knight Mark Borysewicz led the 2026 annual Past Grand Knight Dinner held at the Church of the Redeemer on August 2, 2026, honoring now Immediate Past Grand Knight Greg Chew for his outstanding leadership during the Council's successful 2025-2026 fraternal year, highlights from which included Greg presenting the "Special Friends of the Knights Award" and his important address focused on Christocentric, Catholic Church principles.

"Greetings Worthy DD Day, Worthy Chaplain Father Jim and all the PGKs and Worthy brothers. I wanted to begin by asking a question. What do the Virginia Knights of Columbus and this Council in particular stand for? The reason I ask this question is that the Church and the Bishops of Virginia, both Bishop Burbidge of Arlington and Bishop Knestout of Richmond are taking a stand for truth against two proposed constitutional amendments in November. The first is the fundamental right to abortion being added to the state constitution. It allows abortion at any stage of pregnancy, removes parental consent, and removes all health and safety standards. It also provides no protection for healthcare workers conscientious objections and provides no protection for preborn children. The second is the repeal of the same sex marriage ban. This negates the Church's stance on natural law that marriage is for the good of the couple as well as the creation and education of children. The family is the fundamental unit of society and is under constant attack in our culture. These are two issues where the easy choice is to not take a stand. We can say that is just the teaching of the Catholic Church but isn't anything that we really believe. The Church however, calls us to a higher standard. We as faithful knights cannot ignore the teachings of scripture and the Church. In the most recent church readings, we have heard a lot about the seed of God's Word and about the separating of the wheat from the weeds. As we hear from Isaiah 5:20, 'Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter.' And so I return to my original question, what does this Council stand for? And more importantly, what do you and I stand for? Are we prepared to withstand ridicule and scorn for the teachings of the Church? These are no longer theoretical questions or for Catholics in foreign lands. This is our Peter in the courtyard of the high priest's house moment of whether we deny Jesus and his teachings or do we stand with and for him. So, I would encourage you Brothers to continue to think about these issues and determine what your witness will be with friends, relatives and coworkers."

Due to circumstances, the annual Knight and Family of the Year awards were not presented at the Past Grand Knight Dinner and instead at the September Membership Meeting.

PGK Bill Adams accepts Knight of the Year

"I have known Bill Adams all the way back from the RCIA team. Even then, he was known as a prayer champion, and I learned a lot from him about different forms of Catholic prayer. I believe it has impacted his life since he is a brother whom many confide their struggles or difficulties. Bill is known as someone who will do anything to help a brother and is therefore deserving to be recognized as Knight of the Year. Furthermore, he has assumed additional duties in the Council becoming our Treasurer, which is not an easy duty. I want to thank Bill for his service to the Council but also his friendship."

"Bill and Rosemary Gilhooly are a wonderful couple and a shining example for us fellow knights. It seems they volunteer for every council event be it delivering mulch, fish fry dinners, parish breakfasts, Brunswick Stew and volunteering weekly at the Food Bank. In addition, Rosemary has drawn us closer to the Catholic Daughters and has really made a great partnership between the Council and the Catholic Daughters. I want to thank Bill and Rosemary for their dedication to the parish, Council #11042 and the Catholic Daughters."

Bill Gilhooly accepts Family of the Year

Marybeth Maino accepts Special Friends of the Knights Award

"During this past year, this person has been very active in support of our Council and many of its programs and events. She has also spearheaded a growing and collaborative relationship between our Council and Catholic Daughters here at Redeemer as well."

This past December, she was instrumental in assisting us in a successful Council and CDA sponsored Santa breakfast and also invited several brothers to join CDA in a Christmas social with our seminarians.

She introduced the opportunity for Council to join Catholic Daughters in support of Saint Claire's Monastery, with MCMA now implementing an annual mulch delivery, along with a donation to coincide with CDA's own pantry items drive.

She recently helped us sell many pounds of barbeque and has been designing several of our event fundraising flyers, as well. She also has assisted Council with some great PR work, providing pictures and details, through social media pages, the Good News and Catholic Virginian.

Along with spreading the word about the charitable efforts our two organizations have continued to build together, this is yet another reason we feel this person deserves recognition for all she has accomplished.

In light of that it gives me great pleasure to present the "Special Friends of the Knights Award" to Marybeth Maino.

Council would also like to congratulate Marybeth upon recently receiving the prestigious Saint Faustina Award at the CDA national convention, recognizing her significant efforts in building new membership within Redeemer's Angels."

THANK YOU!

Hello Mark (Borysewicz),

I am reaching out with a huge thank you to the Knights' help this past week to make the Haiti Yard sale a success. The Knights were there this past week in full force. From helping with setup, to picking up furniture, assisting during the sale and the huge job of cleanup, we had so much support. Some of your members even decided to donate, grill and sell hot dogs during the sale! By the end of yesterday we raised over $23,600 for our friends in Haiti. This will help us pay the teacher's salaries for the AFAL school we support in Lascahobas. In Haiti there are no public schools, which makes it very challenging to the very poor to afford to get an education. As a result of this ministry, the AFAL women's empowerment group is able to provide a basic education to kids who cannot otherwise afford to go to a private school.

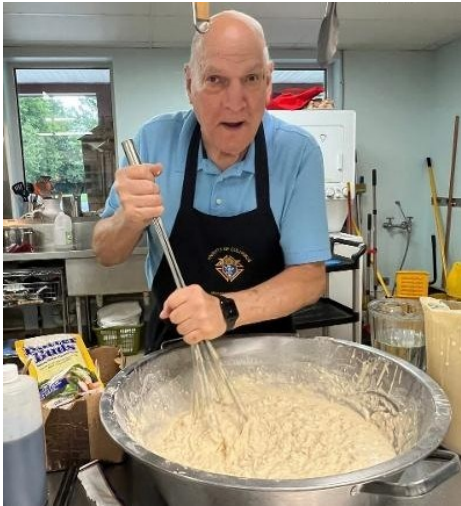

When I broke my foot just two weeks before the sale I was super worried about how everything was going to get done. However, everyone came together to make everything happen, and I felt so supported. Please make sure the Knights know how much I appreciate them taking the time to support this very worthy cause. The funds we raised will help change lives and give hope to these kids in Haiti who have few opportunities.

Thanks, Catherine Cary

RVA Vocations Care

Breakfast, blessings & BIG generosity!

A HUGE thank you to the Redeemer Knights of Columbus for hosting a wonderful Priest Appreciation Breakfast for parish community! From delicious breakfast food to great fellowship, it was a beautiful way to celebrate and thank Father Jim and all Priests for all they do to serve our community.

The generosity of the Church of the Redeemer community showed up in a BIG way! This was a donation-only breakfast and together we raised $1,000!

100% of the proceeds will support religious vocations in our Diocese! Good food. Good fellowship. Grateful hearts.

PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests.

Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments.

Help our priests to be strong in their vocation.

Set their souls on fire with love for your people.

Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus.

Inspire them with the vision of your kingdom.

Give them the words they need to spread the gospel.

Allow them to experience joy in their ministry.

Help them to become instruments of your divine grace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our eternal priest.

Amen.

The multi-decade ecumenical alliance between the Church of the Redeemer K of C Council and Hanover Evangelical Friends Church (HEFC) is part of the Central Virginia Food Bank Feed More program, which continues to reliably distribute food to disadvantaged families and residents in Hanover County every Tuesday.

Over the years, volunteers from the Council have been augmented by family and friends of knights, a Church of the Redeemer force without which this vital Christian ministry would close.

Heavy demand rooted in inflation continues to impact society including residents of Hanover County and the surrounding metropolitan area, which has been manifested at the Hanover Food Bank, recently serving 140 families / individuals on Tuesday, September 22, 2026.

Consider joining this essential ministry any Tuesday between 4:30 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. to experience the greatest joy in the world: helping those in need as Christ Jesus taught us.

Over the span of 11 weeks this summer, the 2026 Summer Food for Kids Program collected, bagged and distributed 4,400 pounds of shelf stable kid friendly food thanks to donations and a team of volunteers, Church of the Redeemer K of C brothers, Catholic Daughters and parishioners, including Maureen Uerz, JoAnn Draper, Mark Condon, PGK Bill Adams, PGK Jeff Uerz, and PGK Dick Letter, volunteering approximately 220 hours of service.

Contributions from outside organizations such as Food Lion and VFW 6364 met half of the $4,400 budget, for which Council is grateful; but also the Knights, friends of Knights, and Church of the Redeemer parishioners who have so generously supported this charitable undertaking. Tax deductible donations continue to be accepted by check payable to MCMA, Mechanicsville Catholic Men's Association, a 501 (c) (3) charity, noting "Food for Kids" on the memo line, mailed to PGK Tad Stilwell, MCMA treasurer, 8341 Ellerson Farm Drive, Mechanicsville, VA 23111.

The beatification Mass for Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen took place on Thursday, September 24, 2026, at The Dome at America's Center in St. Louis, Missouri, Cardinal Luis Antonio Tagle presiding. Sheen becomes the first American-born bishop to be beatified, a historic moment for the Catholic Church in the United States, announced by the Vatican's Dicastery for the Causes of Saints on the Solemnity of the Annunciation.

"It's an indescribable joy to receive the news," said Monsignor Roger J. Landry, National Director of The Pontifical Mission Societies USA. "Archbishop Fulton Sheen is an inspiration not only to all of us who continue his work of prayer and support for the Church's missionary work across the globe but for all those whose faith has been strengthened by his preaching, broadcasting, writing, and holy Catholic life."

Sheen served as National Director of The Pontifical Mission Societies from 1950 to 1966, a period during which he transformed missionary awareness among American Catholics, reminding the faithful that the Church is missionary by her very nature—and that every baptized person shares responsibility for proclaiming the Gospel to the ends of the earth.

Among his many initiatives was the founding of MISSION Magazine, bringing the realities of the universal Church into the homes of American Catholics, fostering both prayer and material support for those living and proclaiming the Gospel in mission territories.

Sheen donated millions of dollars from his own earnings to support the Church in mission territories.

His missionary zeal extended in a particular way to China, where the Church was enduring intense persecution under Communist rule. Sheen frequently spoke out against the regime, describing its use of violence and its attempts to suppress religious freedom, while urging Catholics to pray for and support their brothers and sisters suffering for the faith.

Sheen told of a young Chinese girl—known as "Little Li"—who witnessed Communist soldiers arrest a priest and desecrate a church, scattering 32 consecrated hosts on the floor. For 32 consecutive nights, the girl returned in secret, making a Holy Hour of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament and consuming one host each night. On the final night, she was discovered and killed.

Deeply moved by her witness, Sheen made a daily Holy Hour before the Eucharist for the rest of his life.

DEFINING/LIVING UNSELFISH LOVE OF OTHERS

Mankind's superhero Jesus Christ instituted an unmatched standard of altruism, and occasionally one of His followers rises to merit the often-misused accolade, hero.

Such is the case of Chuck Costello, PGK Kirk McClure's now deceased brother-in-law and the subject of an article titled 'Help Me to Light the Way' by Jorge I. Dominguez-Lopez appearing in the Knights of Columbus Knightline, Volume 44/ Number 36/September 10, 2026, an extraction from which follows:

On the morning of Sept. 11, 2001, Charles 'Chuck' Costello Jr., a 46-year-old elevator mechanic and member of St. Ambrose Council 6424 in Old Bridge, New Jersey, was working about 20 blocks north of the World Trade Center at the Mercer Hotel in SoHo.

"It was not common for him to work in Manhattan at all," recalled his wife, Mary Costello. "He usually worked in Jersey."

Chuck was preparing to repair the hotel's elevators when a Boeing 767 passenger plane slammed into the north tower at 8:46 a.m.; a second one struck the south tower at 9:03 a.m.

As more than 300,000 people fled Lower Manhattan, Chuck ran in the opposite direction. "I'll be fine," he told a coworker before heading into the north tower at around 9 a.m. He later entered the south tower as well.

Firefighters and law enforcement officers who witnessed Chuck's evacuation efforts at ground zero referred to him as "the elevator man." His body was recovered in the south tower's elevator shaft next to a firefighter and a police officer on Jan. 5, 2002. In his pocket were $77, his driver's license and his rosary.

To those who knew Chuck best, it made perfect sense.

"After the towers went down, I was like, 'What was he thinking, running in there, with the kids and everything else?'" said childhood friend Kevin Wyer. "That's Chucky — he wouldn't have been able to live with himself if he didn't."

Mary agreed: "He just did what felt natural to him. A car once broke down on the turnpike in the fast lane, and we pulled over. It was a woman, and he's running into traffic. He's like, 'I'm not gonna leave her there.'"

She added: "He did what had to be done. He didn't have fears about something like that. He just did what was necessary."

Along with Chuck and thousands of other innocent victims killed during this terrorist attack, the collateral damage included Chuck's wife Mary and their four children — Theresa, Amanda, MaryKate and Charlie.

SUPPORT CATHOLIC CHURCH VOCATIONS

“And I say to you: You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of the netherworld will not prevail against it.” Matthew 16:18

The calling to follow Christ and devote one’s life to tend to His flock is a special honor gifted from God.

We Catholics often take for granted our free access to the transubstantiation of simple bread and water into the Body and Blood of Christ, allowing us to continually nourish our soul, only possible through a Roman Catholic priest.

Reportedly in 2025, seminarians/priest ordinations decreased 23%, impacting parishes across America, 21% of which lacked a resident priest, an alarming trend that includes the Catholic Diocese of Richmond.

Following suit, religious orders of sisters also decreased 29%.

To counteract this serious threat to the spiritual health of Catholic Christians, RVA Vocations Care (RVAVC), a non-profit ministry, was established to offer spiritual, financial and community support for Catholic vocations, including those discerning God's call to be a seminarian as well as priests, deacons, religious brothers or sisters, and those who have faithfully served into retirement.

We invite you to learn more about RVAVC and discover the ease with which you can make a difference, first visiting www.rvavocationscare.org. Those who cannot visit, please consider undertaking one or more of the following options to support RVAVC and with it the essential foundation of our Catholic faith, vocations for the priesthood.

- Like, follow, and share the Facebook page to spread information and news.
- Join the RVAVC community by signing up on the website.
- Share with other Church ministries and groups across the Richmond Catholic Diocese.
- Pray for an increase in vocations.
- Volunteer at RVAVC events.
- Purchase a set of Journey Beads and dedicate them to support vocations.
- Make a financial donation.

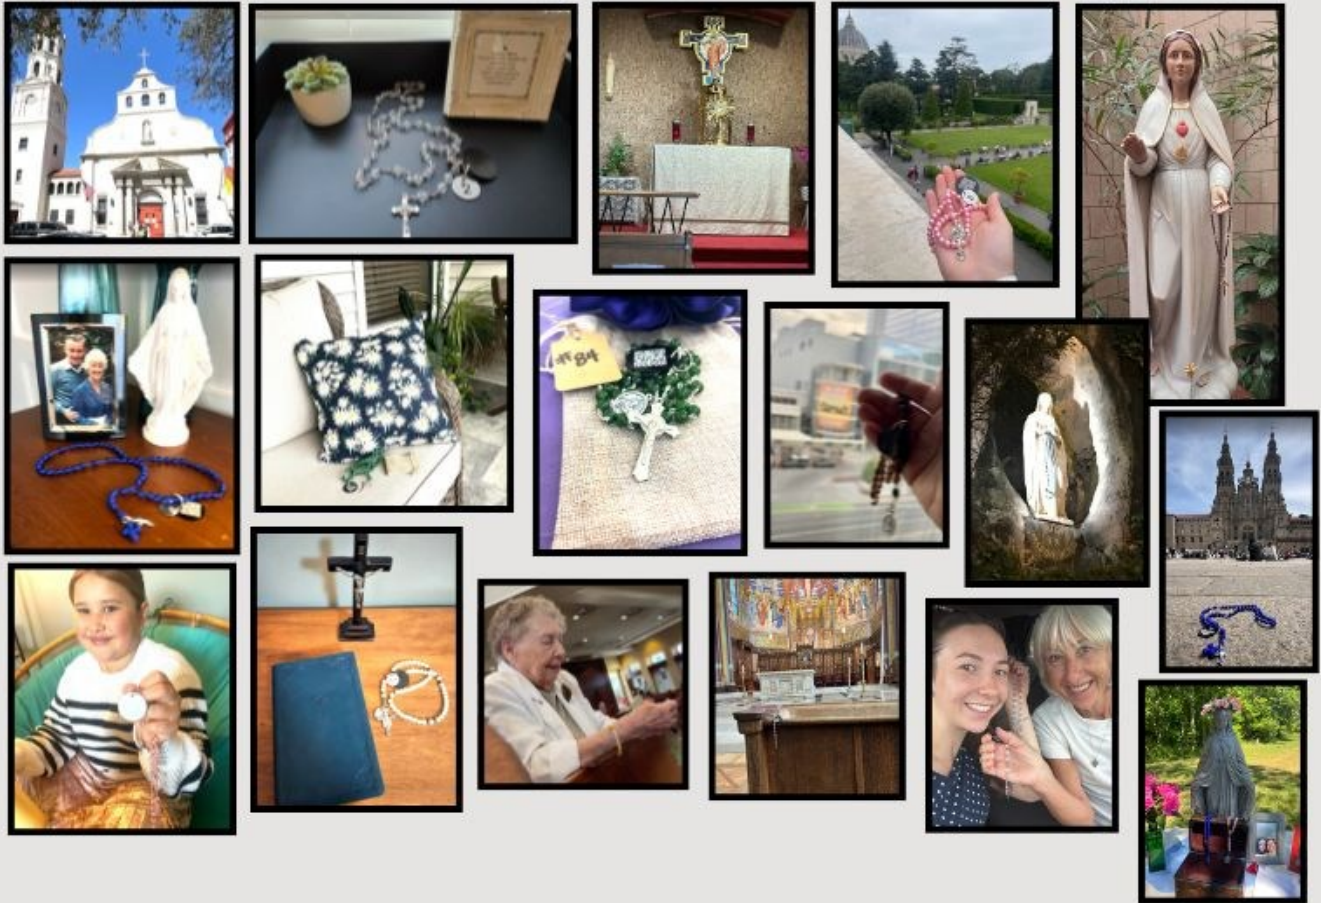

Together, we can strengthen the future of our Catholic Church, one vocation at a time.

The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few.” — Matthew 9:37

JOURNEY BEADS

Every set of Beads has a Story, beginning with Prayer

Countless Prayers connected through Faith

Since the launch of Journey Beads in January 2026, the number of prayers offered and the miles traveled have gone far beyond anything we ever imagined. What began as a simple way to support Religious Vocations has grown into a beautiful movement of prayer reaching across the globe.

Among the many memorable milestones, one set was prayed by Father Dave Pivonka, who also shared the Journey Beads with others. Another special blessing came at the Vatican, where Pope Leo XIV blessed a set before it continued its journey.

Our heartfelt thanks go to the Poor Clare Sisters in Barhamsville, Virginia, who lovingly handcraft each unique set of Journey Beads and have every set blessed before it begins its prayerful travels.

To date, 100 sets have been sold, and 100% of the proceeds have been dedicated to supporting Religious Vocations throughout the Diocese of Richmond. Thank you to everyone who has prayed, shared, and supported this ministry. Together, we are strengthening vocations—one Rosary, one prayer, and one journey at a time.

“Many people feel they cannot go on, and pray: ‘Lord, give me the strength to continue.’ Prayer opens the heaven: it gives life oxygen, it gives a breath of fresh air even in the midst of breathlessness and lets us see things from a broader perspective...Do I cultivate intimacy with God, dialogue with him, listen to his Word? Among the many things we do each day, let us not neglect prayer: let us dedicate time to it, let us use short interventions to be repeated often, let us read the Gospel every day. The prayer that opens the heaven.” Pope Francis
