Survivor Art-Making Opportunities

In recognition of Sexual Assault Awareness month in April, regional survivor service agencies have partnered together to host a community art exhibit March 21st through May 17th, 2025. Through this exhibit, survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault, and human trafficking are empowered to share their stories and raise their voices through art. The following are opportunities for art-making open to the public:

McDowell Healing Arts Center

October 10th & October 16th | 6-8 PM
3253 Congress Ave, Saginaw, MI 48602

Studio 23

October 11th & October 18th | 11:30 AM-3 PM
901 N Water St, Bay City, MI 48708

*Art making supplies will be provided at these events, in addition to one or more representatives from the partnering survivor agencies.

All submissions are due by March 11th, 2025. Contact sschutt@urrinc.org or one of the other partner agencies to submit or learn more information.
