

COVENANT PRAYER

A Sacred Affirmation Honoring the Founding of USBA

INTRODUCTION

The Covenant Prayer marks the founding of the United States of Black America and affirms our national identity before the Most High God. It is not ceremonial. It is a declaration of alignment, remembrance, and purpose that consecrates the nation's direction, responsibility, and work under divine order.

Through the Covenant Prayer, freedom is affirmed as inheritance and governance as covenant. The prayer rejects false power and commits the nation to stewarding land, education, prosperity, and restoration with clarity and discipline. Spoken in full, it serves as a national covering and a call to live faithfully by our founding vows.

Most High God,
We humble ourselves before You.

Not as forsaken, but as Your people.
Not with noise, but with clarity.
Not with fear, but with certainty.

Today, we recognize our prominence in destiny.
We acknowledge our lineage as Foundational Black Americans.
A people You have sustained throughout every generation.
We stand in the truth of knowing who we are.

This is not symbolic.
This is remembrance.
This is not performance.
This is restoration.

We sanctify this day, July 5, 2025,
As the founding of the United States of Black America.

A return to our identity.
A return to our purpose.
A return to the promise You placed in us from creation.

Holy Spirit, take Your place within us.
Align our hearts.
Strengthen our character.
Guard our unity.

Let only what is pure, disciplined, and rooted in justice remain.

We renounce false power.

We renounce dark alliances.

We renounce every influence that distorts or divides our people.

We declare:

That our heritage is a source of humility.

That our land is a right and responsibility.

That education will reflect our legacy, not erasure.

That prosperity will remain in the hands of our people.

That reparations are granted by You as our compensation.

On this sacred day,

We speak what history tried to hide:

Our existence is intentional.

Our journey is not accidental.

Our freedom was not granted,

It is our inheritance.

And we vow:

To honor the elders, the ancestors, and the prophets.

To protect what You have entrusted to us as a people.

To live our lives with respect, love, dignity, and integrity.

To leave the world a better place than what we received.

We call on Your name.

Not in protest, but as covering.

Not in sorrow, but in fellowship.

Not in judge, but in alignment.

Let every heart that receives this blessing find peace.

Let every family be restored with forgiveness and joy.

Let every community reciting this prayer be uplifted.

Let faith, healing, and grace be a part of our daily lives.

We do not ask for acceptance.

We stand in our agency.

We do not seek permission.

We walk in authority.

We do not tolerate oppression.

We lead with sovereignty.

For this is Your covenant.

Your people.

Your appointed hour.

In the name of Jesus.

Amen
