Description:

Did you know that there are seventy historic districts in DC, which include neighborhood districts, government and institutional districts, and park and parkway districts? DC's local neighborhoods account for more than thirty historical districts. It's the residential areas where the majority of residents meet, shop, recreate, and work; it is in the neighborhoods that the urban experience thrives! Come join Vespa Donne to experience some truly unique neighborhoods that DC has to offer. This ride will take you through Pleasant Plains, Shaw, Edgewood, University Heights, Langdon, Trinidad and Brentwood. We will even visit the National Arboretum and ride along H ST. You may even discover some new brunch spots on your future visits to DC!!!
