Welcome and Introduction.

Hello and welcome to “Spiritual Interpretation of Numerology’s Divine Messages” course.

My name is Nickolas and in this course, I will explain shortly and simply what the numbers and the combination of the numbers mean, so you can obtain awareness every time you receive a divine message.

This will help you understand the divine guidance which you receive through the different moments of your life, so you can know how to act upon it and guide your own life towards the best possible results for yourself.

I hope this course will be helpful for your spiritual practice and everyday life. Let us begin!

General Information.

Throughout the history of this world, many people have used Numerology in an attempt to interpretate the different concepts of life – such as the evolution or the purpose of one's life, the spiritual meaning of all kind of things, the purpose of different situations, revelation of future incidents and the list can go on enough. What is hidden behind all these different attempts though, is a common goal. The will, to discover the hidden wisdom, that exists in all life. To reveal the hidden truth, obtain awareness on this wisdom, so to adjust our actions and become wise ourselves.

Numerology is a vast field of information and one can study this subject even for an entire life and still keep learning. In this course, I will provide you an interpretation of numbers through a spiritual approach and more specifically, I will provide some answers that come through numbers, from the Divine Expressions of Life, such as Angels, Archangels, Ascended Masters and Teachers and the Creator. The Divine Expressions use numbers to communicate with us, in attempt to awaken our unconscious and subconscious parts of the mind, so to make us step into awareness regarding our life and its different situations.

As we go through the fast pace of our daily life, we often forget to just stop for a second and just breathe, look high, ask for some guidance, simply seek the communication with the Divine. So our “friends” in the heavens, try to do whatever they can, to remind us that they are still there and willing to provide to us at the most that they can. That they want to have an active communication with us. So most times they present to us numbers! These numbers and their different combinations, have explanations – some are addressed to general matters and some explanations can be very specific.

In the following lectures I will divide the explanations through the combinations of the numbers. Keep in mind that some combinations are repeated, so I will not mention them again, but you can find all combinations in the manual of this course. For example, the message that comes from the combination of numbers 1 + 2, is the same numbers that is revealed through combining the numbers 2 + 1.

Same numbers in a row!
