GROWTH.

Finding direction, creating high performance & achieving profound organisational success.

1. ESMC CONNECT is a voluntary professional membership that allows individuals to receive information and support in the areas of organisational, business, and professional development.
2. Members are required to join by providing essential details such as Name and Email address. This data is protected and not shared as per our strict ESMC Privacy Policy.
3. Membership is free of charge.
4. Membership can be "unsubscribed" following standard protocols.
5. ESMC endeavours to provide members with a range of valuable benefits, including rich information, general advice, invitations, news, and insights. However, all benefits are provided at ESMC's discretion.
6. Any content provided that is identified as marketing recommendations or advice is of a general nature in this forum. All members are required to take steps to distinguish if these concepts meets the interests of their specific circumstances. They are not tailored to any member and ESMC cannot be held responsible if a member chooses to adopt any such concepts.
7. We estimate that the benefits provided through this membership equates to over $1,500 in consulting support over a 12 month period. This is a genuine calculation based on the time and nature of the information as well as the likely base-line savings that an average member could save adopting ESMC consulting services. The number in our assessment is conservative. We welcome any queries regarding this calculation.
8. Discount offers are for direct ESMC Consulting Services only. They cannot be used in conjunction or concurrently with other offers. ESMC may offer additional discounts at its discretion.
9. If there are any items of feedback, complaints or compliments, members may be able to share these via info@elevaremarketing.com.au.
