RYS 200 YOGA TEACHER PROGRAM

Students who complete HYA's 200-Hour Yoga Teacher Training Program are eligible for a final certificate of completion. HYA's 200-Hr Yoga Teacher Training is a multiple weekends and weekday evening intensive program.

Admission Requirements & Prerequisites

An interview is requested based on the completed admission form for acceptance into our program.

Admission Procedures

Applicants may register online at Houston Yoga & Ayurveda, make the full or down payment or visit the center at 13602 Kluge Rd, Call ahead of time if you want an appointment with Sharon or Chris at (281) 256-8461.

Academic Calendar & Schedule

The course should complete in two to three months, incl. Practicum. The intensive portion starts on a Friday, weekdays we meet from 4-9 pm and for two weekends we meet from 6:30 am-5:30 pm. Practicum is scheduled individually.

Please be on time. We begin the day with a prayer/chant. Most days start with a lecture, followed by yoga practice; we call our practice Sadhana. We ask that you focus on your own practice and not think about teaching. For this reason, we don't allow students to take notes during the Sadhana. You are welcome to create a hand sketch or a written sequence (words or stick figures) after the class, and time will be available for Q&A about their choice of poses, sequencing, modifications, etc. Sadhana is followed by a 15 min break for breakfast/lunch/dinner preparation; you are not expected to finish your meal during this time as you are allowed to eat and drink through most of the lectures. We ask that you choose to refrain from alcohol and non-vegetarian foods during the days of Yoga Teacher Training. Remember to leave about an hour, at the very least, between eating and yoga practice. We find that cooking together, a pot luck lunch, snack, or breakfast works excellent, with the whole class participating in learning how to make quick and nutritious food together is very therapeutic and bonding. Meal /Lunch break is flexible. You are free to come and go as you please during the lunch time if you need to. Evenings are usually lecture and yoga class. Pranayama, meditation, restorative, and self-care are practiced throughout to keep you engaged.

Tuition & Fees

The fee for this module is $2,950. A minimum down payment of $900 is required to register. Cash, Check or Credit Card payments for the down or full payment are possible.
