MEET THE TEAM OWNER

Rebecca Kennard

Creating a team where clients get the highest level of service has always been a priority for me. At Desert Luxe our mission is clear; we are committed to helping our clients achieve their real estate goals whether buying, selling or investing while delivering a luxury experience.

Relocating from California I completely fell in love with Arizona's breathtaking landscape. Founding Desert Luxe Realty here was the perfect decision. With my husband and four children by my side we have built a family-oriented environment where every client is a part of the Luxe family. At the heart of Desert Luxe is a commitment to excellence and a belief that exceptional service is not just a promise but a standard we uphold everyday.

Alyssa Alexander

I'm Alyssa Alexander. I'm married to my best friend. We have 3 amazing kids and a golden doodle. I grew up in Alaska—snowboarding, riding ATVS, camping and fishing were all the norm. I moved to Surprise, AZ in 2017 and officially became a desert girly. When I'm not out showing homes, I'm enjoying my pool, watching my boys play sports, my daughter dance, or finding a mountain to take our RZR up. I became a real estate agent because I was drawn to its ability to build financial wealth for families. I knew purchasing real estate was one of the best ways to do that, and I wanted to be the go-to person for my friends and family who had a similar vision.

Beth McCammond

As a proud law enforcement wife and devoted mom of three, I understand the true meaning of home—a place where memories are made and lives are built. This fuels my passion for helping families find a home that reflects their dreams. With 20 years of finance experience, I bring precision, dedication, and strategic insight to your real estate transactions.

Chris Leskovsy

As a Navy Veteran with a strong sense of dedication and discipline, I have been serving the real estate community for two years with the same commitment I gave to my country. Proudly residing in Gilbert with my amazing wife and two kids, I specialize in luxury real estate, investment properties, first-time homebuyers, and custom homes on acreage. I take great pride in being a full-service realtor, offering comprehensive support from the initial introduction all the way to closing, ensuring a seamless and successful experience for my clients.

Armando Bueno

As an Arizona native with over 20 years of sales experience, I specialize in the West Valley real estate market. Proud father of four and bilingual, I bring dedication, expertise, and a strong work ethic to every transaction. I'm passionate about helping clients find their perfect home in Arizona's vibrant communities, ensuring their experience is seamless and stress-free.

Trevor Hendrickson

I come from a family deeply rooted in real estate. This unique upbringing has instilled a profound passion for both Arizona and the dynamic world of real estate. As a dedicated problem solver, I thrive on helping my clients navigate the complexities of buying and selling properties. My commitment to understanding their needs and delivering tailored solutions has led to numerous successful transactions. I eagerly anticipate continuing this journey, guiding many more clients toward achieving their real estate goals.

Joe McInerney

As a top-producing real estate consultant with the Desert Luxe Team, I bring expert guidance, integrity, and a personal touch to every transaction. Originally from Upstate New York, I now proudly call the desert home, with my amazing wife and two beautiful daughters. We pride ourselves on clear, consistent communication and building real relationships with our clients. With a client-first mindset and deep local knowledge, I'm here to make your real estate journey seamless, informed, and successful.

Tia Tatem

As a devoted wife and mother to my beautiful girls, I bring the same passion and commitment to my role as a professional real estate consultant. I take pride in helping families find their dream homes, using my extensive knowledge from over 15 years in the tax and financial industry to navigate the home-buying process. I believe in creating opportunities for generational wealth, and as a relocated family myself, I understand the importance of making informed decisions during this significant transition. I am dedicated to guiding my clients every step of the way, applying my expertise to ensure they feel supported and empowered throughout the journey.
