Toronto Teqball Sport Club is aim is to get Teqball sport known and recognized in Ontario and later in all other Provinces throughout Canada. We would like to make Teqball known and available to anyone in the community who may be interested regardless of their skills, age or gender. Our purpose is to provide all individuals with an interactive, healthy and fun activity through regular Teqball sport practices, events and sporting tournaments.

We also aim to find individuals who are interested in playing Teqball at a professional level. We'll be seeking talented sports people with more profound technical skills and abilities who are willing to represent us in more serious game competitions such as Teqball Championships or European Games. We would also like to help both amateur as well as professional soccer players to strengthen their soccer skills, stamina and develop technical and concentration skills through becoming members with our organization.

The Club's funding will be maintained through memberships, rental fees, donations, sponsorships and charity fundraisers. We'll be also working with volunteers to help us with recruiting, networking and organizing events, etc.

We would like to offer individuals or athletes with either casual or professional interest to be part of a fun, sport-loving, health-seeking, friendly community where you can connect with others, maintain or make new friendships, sharpen soccer skills, increase agility, or just simply enjoy and have fun.
