

The
LAST CITY

STEVE BLINDER

A Novel. 336 pages

A fast-paced psychological & legal thriller.

25 years before Covid, the people of Los Angeles faced a very different form of uncertainty and terror. Just how far would the riots spread?

Set in 1992 L.A. - racial tension is high as gangs rule the inner city streets. Can two over-the-hill security guards succeed in bringing calm to one of the roughest neighborhoods of Compton, California?

Eddie Curtain, a successful white businessman, sees a seemingly mundane jury summons cross his desk. Called to serve on the jury in the trial of a brutal gang-related murder, his life will never be the same.

Would yours?