CALL TO ORDER
Chairman John Ritter opened the Zoning Board meeting at 6:30 PM.

PRESENT
Chairman, John Ritter, George VanHoose, Michael Swanson, Peter MacLaren, Zoning Officer Ed DeVantier, and Clerk Treasurer Salada as secretary.

PUBLIC HEARING
Chairman Ritter opened the public hearing for Benjamin Homes Inc., lot #210 on S third St. Lewiston, NY requesting a dimensional variance appealing the front set back.

Architect Jim Fittante of Fittante Architects presented schematics of the lot, explaining that if the variance was granted it would allow a new build to be the same aesthetics that currently exist in that neighborhood.

Chairman Ritter stated that a survey of the property was not included with the variance application given to them before the meeting.

Architect Fittante continued with the Carriage House and the Fairbanks Mansion are less than five feet from the lot line.

Peter MacLaren said you have to take into consideration the age of those buildings.

Architect Fittante said this change would be consistent with the street.

Chairman Ritter asked about the utilities on the street.

Larry Wills Deputy Supt. of the Village Dept. of Public Works said the sewer line is under the black top roadway.

Architect Fittante said throughout the village a lot of houses are right on the property line. He repeated that the requested setback matches the ascetics of the street and would help out the residences below on South Second Street if it was granted.

Michael Swanson asked if Architect Fittante had a plan for erosion.

Architect Fittante answered if the building is moved forward the trees can be left on the hill to control erosion.

Architect Fittante answered this property has been on the tax rolls as a buildable lot for forty years.

Scott MacFarlane of 215 S. Third Street said since 1958 to 1960 the other homes were built in that area and because of the cliff a building has not been put on that property.

Ross Eckert of 175 S Fourth Street said there was another proposal to build on this lot but after it was surveyed it was determined that the slop was too steep, making it unsafe to build on. There is no parking, the road is narrow there is undermining on the hill and it would encroach on the home below and the current homes on the road.

Heather Sloma of 120 Cayuga Street said she has issues with the concept and the information given to us was unclear. As neighbors we can’t realistically come to a conclusion with the information given to us. We need to see more we need to see what you’re planning on building. Whether the property is a buildable lot should be open to discussion. I encourage the Zoning Board to look at the history, that this property is a part of the waterfront district a target area.
Heather DeCastro said to Architect Fittante; you need to come back with more of a design for this property.

James DiCamillio of 150 S. Second Street said I just had to pay Thirty Thousand dollars for water damage to my property with the heavy rain we received earlier this year. The drainage on our street is already a problem. Erosion is another problem when you start removing trees and digging on the property.

Brian Mitchell of 225 S. Third Street said a notice went out to the residence in the area and I went door to door to get a conclusion. There was no environmental impact study included, no drainage plan; I see safety issues and what about privacy for those directly below this new build, and the neighborhood.

Chairman Ritter closed the public hearing for Benjamin Homes at 6:47 PM.

PUBLIC HEARING – DeGiulio’s Pharmacy 220 Portage Rd. Lewiston NY a variance to appeal the sign law for a second wall sign opened at 6:47 PM.

Chairman Ritter opened by saying you are requesting a banner type sign which is a second wall sign.

No public came forward to speak, the public hearing closed at 6:50 PM.

PUBLIC HEARING - Bonny Amsdill 525 Oneida Street Lewiston, NY a dimensional variance appealing the front set back opened at 6:50 PM.

Larry Wills, Bonny Amsdill’s son came forward to represent 525 Oneida Street. Larry Wills stated that the variance request lines up with the neighbors on the road, it does not interfere with the sight line.

Chairman Ritter questioned if the variance was eight feet four inches total.

Larry Wills said yes the neighbor Joe Rawleigh is eight feet.

No public came forward and the public hearing closed at 6:52 PM.
