APPROVAL OF MINUTES

Ken Slaughoupt made the motion with a second by Jim Fittante to approve the July 24, 2017 minutes. The motion passed unanimously.

CLINTON BROWN

Clinton Brown of Clinton Brown Company Architecture, PC gave a presentation to the Historic Preservation Commission. His presentation was about getting an inventory of the Village of Lewiston. He described getting a Windshield Survey or a Reconnaissance Survey.

TOM YOTS

Tom Yots and his intern gave a presentation on the Presbyterian Church and the Lewiston Cemetery. Joseph Duggan has a degree in History and English from St. Lawrence. He explained to the Historical Preservation Commission what information he has found during his research of the Church and the Cemetery. They are currently helping the Church prepare to submit to be Nationally Designated.

Tom Yots also presented to the Historic Preservation Commission about getting an inventory done of the Village of Lewiston. He will get a budget number to the Commission before the September 2017 meeting.

NYS DOT LETTER TO PROPERTY OWNERS ON CENTER STREET

Slaughoupt asked if everyone understands why the letters that the Historic Preservation Commission sent to the NYS DOT and to the Historic Property owners on Center Street were sent.

Slaughoupt explained the letter the property owners received from the DOT. He also explained what the two letters that were sent out from the HPC said.

OTHER

65 CENTER STREET

Chairman Wright asked if John Kinney got a sign permit.

Claudia Marasco of the Planning Commission replied no.

Chairman Wright said he will get in contact with Ed DeVantier the Zoning Officer about taking the sign down.
