CBD Consultation & Client Informed Consent

I understand that I am attending a consultation for the utilization of CBD oil which is FDA Approved and legal in all 50 states. Recommendations for my complaint may or may not be currently guided by any specific protocol and that any recommendations are based on current data available from the Mayo clinic, Johns Hopkins and the international database for CBD research via the RoC protocol.

CBD has shown clinical effectiveness in the use of chronic and degenerative conditions. It has also been found effective in some cases such as anxiety, sleep interruption, digestive issues, inflammatory and neurological pain as well as other subjective complaints.

CBD is derived from the hemp plant and contains low level of THC at or below 0.3% during dry harvest techniques per state. And federal law, therefore, in rare cases, there may be some symptoms such as light headedness or dizziness, additional side effects could include dry mouth or soft stools.

There are some medications that require monitoring , such as analgesics and old generation anticoagulants.

By signing below, I am acknowledging these and other potential risks and/or side effects that may occur. And understand the responsibility regarding any response that I might experience.

I understand that any kinesiology or muscle testing done in regards to CBD products does not replace medical advice. I further understand that taking CBD is MY responsibility. I do not hold Cynthia Sharpe responsible for my CBD intake or any effects it may have upon me.
