

ACQUIRED BRAIN INJURY (ABI)

COGNITIVE CHANGES

#InvisibleIllness

Bleeding from a cavernoma, epileptic seizures, and brain surgery to remove a cavernoma can all cause Acquired Brain Injury which can result in changes to how a person functions in the following areas:

TAKES MORE TIME TO MAKE SENSE OF INFORMATION

PROBLEMS WITH PLANNING, ORGANISING
& STARTING TASKS

PROBLEMS WITH WORD
FINDING AND PROCESSING

PROBLEMS WITH VISION

IMPULSIVENESS

POOR MEMORY AND CONFUSION

EASILY DISTRACTED

Cavernoma Society

DIS-INHIBITION (NO SOCIAL FILTER)

Registered charity number: 1184406

www.cavernomasociety.org.uk