Part | Required Provisions in Your Organizing Document

Part III helps ensure that, when you submit this application, your organizing document contains the required provisions to meet the organizational test under section 501(c)(3).

If you cannot check "Yes" in both Lines 1 and 2, your organizing document does not meet the organizational test. DO NOT file this application until you have amended your organizing document. Remember to upload your original and amended organizing documents at the end of this form

1 Section 501(c)(3) requires that your organizing document limit your purposes to one or more exempt purposes within section 501(c)(3), such as charitable, religious, educational, and/or scientific purposes.

The following is an example of an acceptable purpose clause: The organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Does your organizing document meet this requirement?

Yes	No

1a State specifically where your organizing document meets this requirement, such as a reference to a particular article or section in your organizing document (Page/Article/Paragraph):

Purpose statement of articles of incorporation

2 Section 501(c)(3) requires that your organizing document provide that upon dissolution, your remaining assets be used exclusively for section 501(c)(3) exempt purposes, such as charitable, religious, educational, and/or scientific purposes. Depending on your entity type and the state in which you are formed, this requirement may be satisfied by operation of state law.

The following is an example of an acceptable dissolution clause: Upon the dissolution of this organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.

Part IV Your Activities

1 Describe completely and in detail your past, present, and planned activities. Do not refer to or repeat the purposes in your organizing document.

For each past, present, or planned activity, include information that answers the following questions:

- a. What is the activity?
- b. Who conducts the activity?
- c. Where is the activity conducted?
- d. What percentage of your total time is allocated to the activity?
- e. How is the activity funded (for example, donations, fees, etc.) and what percentage of your overall expenses is allocated to this activity?
- f. How does the activity further your exempt purposes?

We are writing software that provides a communication system for donors and drivers to coordinate with each other, so that those drivers can pick up food at the donors doorstep and take it to a pantry or food bank. A Chapter Administrator starts a chapter in their town, they set that up on our website. They then get donors and drivers to register. This is done by speaking at church's, running ads in newspapers, door hangers, and having tables in front of grocery stores.

What is the Activity. The Activity we do is create and administer the website, answer questions, debug and make improvements. The real activity are those using the website to build community involvement.

Who conducts the Activity. We have a programmer we pay, and we also have our own technical skills. We work as a team to build the software.

Where is the Activity Conducted. Our main programmer lives in Alabama, the rest of us live in California. The work is mainly done at our homes.

What percentage of your total time is allocated to this activity. About 20 percent

How is the Activity Funded. For now, 70 percent of the funding is coming from myself, Mark Martindill. However, we are talking to many brand sponsors such as banks, credit unions, and other big community donors. We give our donors a reusable bag to put their donation in, as we pick one up we leave one behind. That bag is a great place for donors to get brand marketing. What percentage of your overall expenses is allocated to this activity. This is our only activity, so 100 percent of our expenses are tied to it.

How does the activity further your exempt purposes. Right now it takes about 50 hours for the 115 home donation programs nation wide to plan and organize a pickup event. Our software reduces that time to about 3 hours. Because it's so hard to have an event, only 1 percent of America has one in their area. We believe our software will allow these events to happen all over the country. The result will be to grow the current donation volume of 4.5 million pounds a year to 450 million pounds of food a year.
