EXPERIENCE

PwC | Dallas, TX

Senior Associate Intern, Financial Services Consulting | Jun 2026 – Jul 2026

Supported a block-of-business analysis and migration strategy engagement for a Fortune 500 life and annuity insurer.

- Analyzed 56 legacy policy blocks across systems to assess migration readiness. Identified data gaps / risks / cost drivers that shaped the client's sequencing decision.
- Built models to compare migration options on cost, risk, and timeline. The output fed the engagement's final recommendation to client executive level.
- Synthesized findings into executive-ready deliverables for client leadership.
- Earned a full-time Senior Associate offer in the Business Services Consulting (BSCO) practice.

United States Army | Multiple Locations

Infantry Officer (Captain) | May 2018 – Aug 2025

Held progressive command and staff roles over seven years, leading teams of 40 to 270 personnel. Directed training for a 45,000-person corps, safeguarded $416M in equipment, and managed a $1.5M annual budget.

- Directed corps-level training strategy for 45,000 personnel with a 30-person team. Briefed senior leadership on risk, performance, and resourcing gaps, which shaped multimillion-dollar budget allocations.
- Built data visualization dashboards that exposed process inefficiencies and saved 1,200+ man-hours annually.
- Commanded a 270-person company. Introduced lean methods that cut training costs 15% and freed funds for mission-critical needs. Achieved 100% compliance in external audits and twice ranked #1 of 30 peers.
- Led operations for Task Force Eagle's resettlement of 10,000 Afghan refugees. Aligned priorities with the Departments of State and the Interior, and designed reporting frameworks that made immigration data more accurate and timely. Earned the Humanitarian Service Medal.
- Synchronized plans with interagency and international partners, and wrote contingency plans that reduced operational risk.
- Recognized as top platoon leader. Orchestrated the redeployment of a 1,000-person battalion from South Korea with zero readiness loss.
