

Photo date: 1940's

Mr. McGoon peddled fresh fruits & vegetables in the valley. The nearest grocery stores were in Perris, Elsinore and Winchester. The Helms Bakery truck also stopped by homes in Menifee.

Photo date: 1914

Walter, Margaret and Hazel Brown walk through the wheat field after school. Their home was on Garbani Rd, one mile north of the Antelope School on Scott Road.

Undated photo

A view of the Hans Christensen Ranch and equipment on Antelope Road just north of Garbani Road. Looking NW across the valley are the hills of Quail Valley.

Photo date: 1950's
Swimmers and sun bathers enjoyed the pool and recreation area of the private Quail Valley Country Club. Behind the pool is the Snack Shack.

MVHA

Photo date: 1960

Aerial view looking south over the property that would be developed by Del Webb as Sun City, CA.

Hwy 395 (now I-215) is on the left side of photo.

Photo date: mid 1960's

Aerial view looking south over Del Webb's Sun City development during construction. North Golf Course and Sun City Plaza were at mid completion.

Photo date: 1949

The Antelope School was located on the SE corner of Scott Rd. & Hwy 395 (I-215). The building was moved to Wilderness Lakes where it eventually deteriorated.

Photo date: 1989

John D. Lusk donated property within his Menifee Lakes Master Planned community for Mt. San Jacinto College's Menifee campus. First classes were offered in 1990.

Photo date: 1950's

George Gardner's garage located on Murrieta Road north of Craig Road. Located next to Tommy's Market, the filling station provided auto parts & repairs.

Photo date: 1952

View looking east at Intersection of Newport Road and Highway 395 (now I-215).

Photo date: 1950's

View traveling north on State Hwy 395 at Scott Road.
Union 76 gas and auto service station. Chub's Diner is also visible on the right side of the photo.

Photo date: 1970's

Piles of wheat grain harvested by BKM Ranchers. The location is the Bravo Ranch which was west of I-215 and north of Newport road, near today's Menifee city hall.

Photo date: 1950's

Homecoming reunions were held at the Menifee school from 1940 to about 1954. Early residents that attended shared biographies about their time in Menifee.

Photo date: approx. 1915

William Newport is standing beside a car in front of his residence. This home and ranch was on Newport Road, near today's Kay Cenicerros Community Center.

Photo date: 1970's

View looking southwest from Zeiders road just south of Scott road. Grain harvesters and dump trucks lined up to begin work in the wheat fields.

Photo date: 1912

William Brown has hitched his buggy to D'Artagnan, a French stallion purchased by the Leon Percheron Horse Co. for breeding work horses.

Photo date: 1980's

Aerial view over Zeiders Ranch looking southwest.
The wheat fields surrounding the farm have been harvested and tilled.

Photo date: 1890's

The home of William and Callie Kirkpatrick and their nine children. Built around 1890 (in today's Menifee Lakes area), the style reflects their southern roots.

Photo date: late 1970's
Engleson's Market (now Menifee Market) located on Scott Road at Murrieta Road. The small store served the area providing gas, basic grocery items and supplies.

MVHA

Photo date: approx. 1910

Walter and Frances (Evans) Zeiders. Walter rode his cycle from Pennsylvania to California in 1909 with $17 and his backpack. He married Frances in 1913.

MVHA

Photo date: 1913

Thanksgiving day in Menifee with the Brown family.
Pictured are Rosamond, Walter, William, Margaret,
Myra Kittilson (Grammie) and Hazel.

Photo date: early 1900's

Callie Kirkpatrick on right with others feeding turkeys on the Emmelita Ranch located on Briggs road south of Scott road.

Photo date: 1937

Bob Wickerd giving his sister Rose a ride. Their home was in Cottonwood Canyon, near entrance of today's Golf Course Clubhouse at Canyon Lake.

Photo date: 1937

Herk Bouris (right) with his friend Floyd Tucker.
Photo taken on Bouris Bros. ranch. They playing on a tractor and plow, pretending to drive the equipment.

Photo date: 1913

Callie Kirkpatrick's children gathered around their mother for a Christmas photo. Her children attended the Menifee school.

Photo date: 1957

A winter snow storm left the Louis Krubsack home looking like a Christmas card. The home is on Wickerd road, north of Scott road.

MVHA

Photo date: early 1900's

Christmas at the Newport ranch. Adults watching the youngster playing with his new train. William Newport is in the back row on the left.

MVHA

Photo date: July 1944

William Brown beside sacks of grain stockpiled next to his barn on SW corner of Antelope & Garbani roads. He then hauled the grain to Los Angeles to sell.

Photo date: early 1938

Paul Wright at his parents rock house in the hills along Menifee's southern boundary. Their road was a mile through the hills originally built with pick and shovel.

Photo date: December, 1921

Left to Right: Dorothea O'Neil, Margaret Kirkpatrick, Glen Kirkpatrick, Dwight Velzy Jr. & Virginia Velzy. Christmas at Grandma Callie Kirkpatrick's Menifee Home.

MVHA

Photo date: approx. 1925

Alice Roberts is milking the goat while her mother Callie Roberts and brother Lerner help. The goat is in a stanchion to keep it still while being milked.

Photo date: approx. 1915

A crew of seven men operating this early hand-baler at the Roberts Ranch on Briggs Road, south of Scott Road. Hay was packed into a wooden bale mold, then bound.

Photo date: May 25, 1913

Oliver and Emma Roberts taking a ride in their buggy on the Emmelita Ranch. The ranch was on the west side of Briggs Road, south of Scott Road.

MVHA

Photo date: approx. 1915

This hay baler on the Roberts Ranch in Menifee took its power from belts connected to a 1913 Holt 75 gas tractor. Compressed bales were kicked off the back ramp.

Photo date: approx. 1967

In Sun City's early years the retirement community had its own intra-city shuttle bus with regular stops at the Clubhouse where residents enjoyed shuffleboard.

MVHA

Photo date: approx. 1967

Del Webb's Sun City Development Corporation offered a variety of floorplans and elevations to choose from, and his Kings Inn Motel offered accommodations for guests.

