

Who am I?

I'm a Professional Coach, trainer, and facilitator with over two decades of experience leading teams in the commercial radio and public broadcasting industry in Australia and South-East Asia. I've coached high profile leaders and media talent by creating an environment built around honesty and fairness, while highlighting that people have within them what it takes to succeed. I'm passionate about partnering with you to help make you the best you can be, develop an understanding of who you are, and what benefits coaching will bring you.

My work as a senior leader in a variety of commercial media and public broadcasting companies over the last 20 years has allowed me to develop strong leadership and coaching experience that's easily transferred to any industry. I've worked with many companies in South-East Asia allowing me to adapt to a variety of coaching situations and provide the best possible outcomes for both individuals and their employers. I've also developed a solid reputation of being a successful leadership and professional coach, trainer, and facilitator who is much in demand.

I will help you:

- Become the person you deserve to be, and someone people look up to and respect
- Navigate change successfully
- Better manage your time and resources
- Identify your compelling future and goals, and action steps you need to take to get there
- Continue to learn and grow and be the best "you" you can be.

My qualifications include a Certificate IV in Training and Assessment, Master of Business Administration with a focus on strategic management and organisational change, a Diploma of Leadership Coaching, and membership of the International Coaching Federation. I'm also an accredited DISC ADVANCED® Consultant, providing behaviour assessments for organisations. Currently I'm the Regional Content Director (Victoria and South Australia) for Grant Broadcasters, and Head Lecturer for the Radio Content, Leadership, and Management Course offered through the Australian Film, Television and Radio School in Sydney. I've also delivered a variety of key note speeches at conferences in South-East Asia. Outside of work, I'm a husband, keen traveller, licensed pilot, accredited cricket umpire, volunteer, and member of Mensa Australia.

If you're looking for guidance and support, coaching with me can help. I've helped people identify goals and plan action steps, and provide support and encouragement for positive changes in behaviour. Coaching with me will help you become more self aware, and guide you to a more compelling future.
