Season 1 Rules and Structure

We're using the standard Blood Bowl Sevens rules from the NAF website:

<https://www.thenaf.net/wp-content/uploads/2019/09/Blood-Bowl-Sevens-2019.pdf>

Season 1 features 5 Teams, playing against each other over a period of 5 Rounds.

Once the Regular Season (5 games) has happened, the top 4 teams will go into a single-elimination Semi-Final and then Final.

For Season 1 we are not tracking SPPs or Cash, and it is resurrection format (so no injuries).

Team Building Rules

The Teams are built using the rules as above, however we're adding in some skills to spice things up.

Each Coach can choose 1 Skill when building the Team.

After every game the Coach can choose 1 Skill for a Player.

Skills have no stacking limit, and the type of Skill (Normal / Double) allowed is dependant on the tier of the team as listed below.

Final Thoughts

The Sevens Super Series has been such great fun to play, and I really do recommend these rules for a mini-league or tournament.

In fact, I think we'll be using a variant of these rules at Sewer Bowl Sevens 2020...!

Happy Blocking,

Ben
