National Hospital Week

May 10-16th, 2026

NATIONAL HOSPITAL WEEK is an annual celebration recognizing hospitals, healthcare workers, and their vital contributions to communities across the United States.

National Hospital Week is observed each year to highlight the essential role of hospitals, health systems, and healthcare professionals in providing care and improving community health. It typically coincides with the birthday of Florence Nightingale on May 12, honoring her legacy as the founder of modern nursing, and in 2026, it will be celebrated from May 10 to 16 American Hospital Association

PURPOSE AND SIGNIFICANCE

The week serves to recognize the dedication and hard work of healthcare workers, including doctors, nurses, technicians, and support staff, who deliver life-saving care daily. It also provides an opportunity for hospitals to engage with their communities, showcase innovations, and educate the public about healthcare services American Hospital Association American Hospital Association+2. Activities often include staff recognition, wellness programs, open houses, social media campaigns, and educational workshops calendar-holidays.comcalendar-holidays.com.

HISTORY

National Hospital Week originated as National Hospital Day in 1921, established to restore public trust in hospitals following the 1918 influenza pandemic. In 1953, it was expanded to a week-long celebration to coincide with Florence Nightingale's birthday. The American Hospital Association (AHA) sponsors the event annually, providing resources and materials to help hospitals celebrate and highlight their impact calendar-holidays.comcalendar-holidays.com.

National Hospital Week emphasizes the importance of healthcare professionals and the critical role hospitals play in saving lives, supporting recovery, and advancing medical innovation, making it a meaningful occasion for both healthcare workers and the communities they serve.

Stuart Silver Fox Ranch

Stuart, Nebraska

Jerry Penry

Preface

With the passage of more than seventy years since it closed, the former Silver Fox Ranch that was once located nine miles north of Stuart, NE, has mostly slipped into obscurity. From newspaper accounts of the late 1920's and into the 1940's, it was portrayed as being a truly magnificent operation. It put Stuart on the map as being the largest facility of its kind in the entire Midwest.

The sole purpose of the ranch was to raise silver foxes as well as a lesser number of coyotes, rabbits, and mink for their fur. The intent was not done to produce warm clothing, but rather for the sale of valuable and highly sought luxury apparel.

Tragedy on the Trampoline

A Nebraska Murder Mystery

Jerry Penry

A sensational true story murder mystery that took place in rural Holt County, Nebraska.

Two trappers formed a partnership to trap wild animals as a winter source of income. One was a well-known local Holt County man, while the other was a mysterious outsider from Wisconsin. After they departed in the spring of 1932, the local man was later found dead under suspicious circumstances...

The murder was pinned on the outsider who then fought to save his own life from the death penalty. Did he really do it? Was this even a murder? The expensive trial nearly left the county bankrupt...

EVERY DAY, NEBRASKA EXAMINER journalists work tirelessly to hold government officials to account and report on how state policies affect Nebraskans - and there could hardly be a time when such journalism is more crucial. Guiding our newsroom is a simple command: Dogged. Principled. Dedicated to Nebraska news. Nebraskans want accountability from their elected officials and government. They want to know whether their tax dollars are being well-spent, whether state agencies and local governments are responsive to the people and whether officials, programs and policies are working for the common good. The Nebraska Examiner is a nonprofit, independent news source committed to providing news, scoops and reports important to our state..... 10ctf
