EVERY DAY, NEBRASKA EXAMINER journalists work tirelessly to hold government officials to account and report on how state policies affect Nebraskans – and there could hardly be a time when such journalism is more crucial. Guiding our newsroom is a simple command: Dogged. Principled. Dedicated to Nebraska news. Nebraskans want accountability from their elected officials and government. They want to know whether their tax dollars are being well-spent, whether state agencies and local governments are responsive to the people and whether officials, programs and policies are working for the common good. The Nebraska Examiner is a nonprofit, independent news source committed to providing news, scoops and reports important to our state..... 10ctf

HOBBIES THAT ENCOURAGE ADULTS TO BE CREATIVE

Parents of young children have undoubtedly read or learned about the benefits of giving children time to engage in creative pursuits. Such activities can help foster cognitive development in youngsters, but the benefits of being creative don't end in adolescence. In fact, adults also have much to gain from being creative as well.

A 2021 study published in the International Journal of Environmental Research and Public Health noted a positive relationship between creativity and subjective well-being in adults. Such findings are a feather in the cap of creative pursuits, and enough to compel some adults to wonder which hobbies they can pursue in an effort to ignite their creative fire. Creativity can be defined in a number of ways, particularly with respect to recreational pursuits, but various activities might be just what adults need to reap the rewards of being more creative.

• PAINTING: Many adults who paint characterize this recreational activity as a great way to unwind and ease stress. Painting requires creativity, and even avid painters may not recognize that painting is a mental exercise that encourages problem-solving. That can have a profound impact on mental health, as a 2015 study in the journal Neurology found that adults who engaged in creative pursuits like painting were 73 percent less likely to develop cognitive issues that can lead to dementia.

• WRITING: Writing is another creative pursuit that can make for a great hobby. Writing in a journal, even if it's a recap of the day's events and not writing fiction, can clear up mental clutter, which in turn can open a pathway to more creative thinking. Adults also can utilize a journal to do some creative writing.

• KNITTING: Knitting is another hobby that allows adults to indulge their creative side. Adults must design patterns, choose colors and even create items wholly from scratch when knitting, which makes this a great way to be more creative with personal time.

• PLAYING AN INSTRUMENT: Learning to play a musical instrument affords adults an opportunity to express themselves. Playing a musical instrument also has been linked to a range of cognitive benefits, including sharpened decision-making, improved memory and focus and enhanced mental flexibility.

Various activities encourage adults to be creative and foster a greater sense of creativity in men and women. Such pursuits make invaluable hobbies and pay both short- and long-term dividends.

Stuart Silver Fox Ranch

Stuart, Nebraska

Jerry Penny

Preface

With the passage of more than seventy years since it closed, the former Silver Fox Ranch that was once located nine miles north of Stuart, NE, has mostly slipped into obscurity. From newspaper accounts of the late 1920's and into the 1940's, it was portrayed as being a truly magnificent operation. It put Stuart on the map as being the largest facility of its kind in the entire Midwest.

The sole purpose of the ranch was to raise silver foxes as well as a lesser number of coyotes, rabbits, and mink for their fur. The intent was not done to produce warm clothing, but rather for the sale of valuable and highly sought luxury apparel.

Tragedy on the Trapline

A Nebraska Murder Mystery
Jerry Penny

A sensational true story murder mystery that took place in rural Holt County, Nebraska.

Two trappers formed a partnership to trap wild animals as a winter source of income. One was a well-known local Holt County man, while the other was a mysterious outsider from Wisconsin. After they departed in the spring of 1932, the local man was later found dead under suspicious circumstances...

The murder was pinned on the outsider who then fought to save his own life from the death penalty. Did he really do it? Was this even a murder? The expensive trial nearly left the county bankrupt...
