OBJECTIVES FOR THE OFFICE SOUGHT

Please identify the three (3) most important policy issues currently confronting the office for which you are running, and briefly describe how you will apply the Republican principles of liberty, personal responsibility, and public accountability to address those issues, if elected.

border security and immigration - immigrants must follow the law and gain legal access to our country; anything less would be unfair to legitimate, tax paying citizens of the United States healthcare and lower prescription drug costs - we are the greatest country in the world and our citizens deserve access to basic healthcare that the states can help to administer; we need innovation, business-savvy and companies that focus on America and its citizens civility and community - we need to rebuild what made America great and be sure that the American dream is alive and well for all; we need to focus on community and support for one another and must stop focusing on our political differences; we must stop being so divisive and work to build up ourselves and our country

If you are elected, will assuming this office require you to accept a decrease in annual income?

uncertain. Salary - no; bonus - possibly yes
