

JULIANA FRANGELLA

Juliana Frangella is a singer/songwriter from New Jersey with inspirations from nearly every decade of rock and roll. From the 70s all-girl rock band, The Runaways, to the 90s alternative rock band, The Breeders, to the genre-bending-and upending Taylor Swift, the common threads are women who know who they are and what they want to say.

Her songs are most often born out of a quest for catharsis and a prerequisite for honesty. And sometimes... just an “Intrusive Thought”. ;)
