

Rules and Conditions of Participation

1. Participation in the proposed activities involves risks. Acknowledging and accepting these risks is mandatory in order to participate. Please refer to the document titled Recognition and Acceptance of Risks for GRIDZ.
2. The safety of all participants, our employees, and the occupants of the building is our top priority. Therefore:
  - a. Participants must review the building's evacuation plan in case of emergency. They must also follow the instructions of GRIDZ staff when applicable.
  - b. Behaviors that may endanger one's own safety or the safety of others are prohibited. These behaviors include, but are not limited to:
    - i. Running at high speed;
    - ii. Inappropriate physical contact with other participants: pushing, hitting, tripping, etc.;
    - iii. Playing with eyes closed;
    - iv. Any form of somersault or flip;
    - v. Playing while standing on one's hands;
    - vi. Participating under the influence of drugs or alcohol;
    - vii. Failing to remain aware of one's surroundings at all times;
    - viii. Interacting inappropriately with décor elements or game equipment (flooring, television, sound system, etc.).
  - c. Wearing anti-slip socks is mandatory at all times.
  - d. It is forbidden to consume food or beverages inside the game rooms.
  - e. Any consumption of alcohol, drugs, or tobacco products (including vaping devices) is prohibited within GRIDZ premises.
3. Any violation of the safety rules mentioned in point #2 may result in immediate expulsion without the possibility of a refund.
4. Any form of misuse of GRIDZ facilities, equipment, or materials will be reported to the authorities, and steps will be taken to recover the cost of required repairs.
5. GRIDZ provides lockers free of charge to store your personal belongings during your play session, but cannot be held responsible for lost or stolen items.
