

About Us: Cooper Gaul Racing (CGR) is a first responder, family owned and operated race team. We believe in hard work, and determination to be successful not only in racing, but in life. We enjoy racing as a family and our time spent together at the race track. Racing truly is a family sport.

Our Driver: Cooper Gaul is 16 years old and dedicated to putting the hard work in to win. Cooper has been racing in INEX US Legend Cars for about two years. INEX US Legend Cars are a 5/8 scale 1934 Ford or Chevrolet with a 125 HP 847cc FZ09 Yamaha sealed, fuel injected, water-cooled, spec engine and only weighs 1250 lbs including the driver. Many current professional race car drivers started their careers in legend cars. Cooper is teamed with 77 Speed Shop and races primarily in Georgia but will be participating in televised National events in April, June, July, and October. Cooper had a very successful 2023 season including a great week at the 2023 INEX Winter Nationals held February 13-17 at Citrus Co. Speedway, earning top-three qualifying positions all week, including two poles, three podium finishes, including a win and was 3rd in overall points for Winter Nationals Young Lions Championship, with only 7 points separating 1st through 3rd place. He had another great Nationals week at Nashville Spring Series April 12-15. Three 2nd place finishes and one 3rd place finish out of six races. Ended the week 2nd in Nashville Spring Series Young Lions Championship points out of 36 drivers. Cooper also ran the Atlanta Motor Speedway Thursday Thunder summer series and won the 2023 Young Lions Championship. Cooper ran 52 races during the 2023 season including 45 top 5 finishes, 39 podium finishes, and 10 wins.

Beyond racing, Cooper is a sophomore in high school, maintaining over a 4.0 weighted GPA while taking AP College level courses and working toward certifications in Engineering and Social Media Marketing. He is committed to success and works hard to ensure he is able to achieve not only his racing goals, but also his academic goals. Cooper is very proud to be part of a family of firefighters, taking every opportunity to advocate for firefighter causes and charities.

Sponsorship/Partnership: What can Cooper Gaul Racing (CGR) offer you? Through social media posts, along with your logos on our race car we can provide low cost advertising to you. We will tag, comment and post on a weekly basis to our social media and website. We will create videos for YouTube, Instagram, Facebook and Twitter to draw viewers attention to your amazing products or services. In addition to all of that, you will be impacting the life of a young racer and the future of auto racing in America, not to mention helping a first responder's child. To be honest, racing is very expensive, we appreciate you taking the time to read this proposal and we are grateful for any help you have to offer.
