

Paper: Earth's Transitional Phase – March 2020 to ??

Date: 26 Jan. 2023

By: D. R. Shearer

Topic: Our dear planet is going through a transitional phase which began in March of 2020. As a living member of the species which resides upon planet Earth, we simply have the opportunity to either go with this imminent move to Light & Life, or we can simply deny this opportunity. This Paper will dig into some details of this transition, namely it's imminence and an example of application.

Introduction

This transition is marked by one unavoidable fact: DISRUPTION. This is a mild way of putting the events around us, because some folks are losing their lives and/or their jobs. This is a natural occurrence that was always going to come one day and is simply the result of one thing: allegiance to falsehood. This particular allegiance has been occurring since our species first originated, and is an evolutionary trait that can be thought of as “natural selection”. The only thing that we have found out though, is that it is anything but natural. The good thing about the whole program is that the current realization of falsehood [ever-increasingly rapid emergence of Truth], gives us the solution... and this solution, which will be properly applied, will produce an eternal condition for a planet and it's inhabitants, known as Light & Life.

Historical Interpretation

One is free to consider the current events being the culmination & conclusion of the effects of the Lucifer Rebellion (a [misguided] tripartite declaration). If one is not interested in the complete understanding that this transition is the ultimate & final application of God's Love & Laws, which are certainly being recognized by millions now, then it is best to consider this occurrence as the ultimate application of one particular ingredient, and none else: the absence or presence of Love.

Further to this, it can be easily demonstrated that it is the imposition of greed & control that has landed humanity where we find ourselves now. This information is part of the Truth-Emergence that is amplifying, day by day. The details of who is behind this control imposition is not the focus of this Paper. Rather the focus is on the understanding of how we have gotten “off track”, and how Truth-Emergence will get us “back on track”.

A Particular Point to Guide Us

It may help to understand the nature behind the claim, “allegiance to falsehood”. An example, forthcoming, will be shown to illustrate this condition.

The structure of our society is something that we consider to be a natural phenomenon, partly because it has “naturally” been developed over our lifetimes, and many years prior to that – we consider the structure around us to be “normal” and many of those who have taken up ‘professions’ within this structure also consider these positions to be normal and natural. “After all I paid $100,000’s to get my “academic” training, therefore it is legitimate!”

The problem here is that information that has emerged over the past 34 months is completely denying this statement as being authentic, in many cases. And it is this fact that gives a glimpse into the lack of naturalness of the structure that we live in and under.

What this all means is that the population is coming to the understanding that it is the lack of the distinct application of Love that has landed us in this ‘transitional phase’ area. Again, this has been, in many cases, a programmed component of our “society”.

Without going into further detail on this matter, suffice it to say that it is incumbent upon us all to have a closer look at just what we have been sold, for many decades now, and what are we going to do about it.

Aligning With Truth

What is occurring, you might say by default, IS the establishment of God’s Love & Laws. We know this because these Laws come from the Bible. Whether someone is able to align with this fact or not is something that each of us may want to decide upon. God’s Love & Laws have always been optional, by way of our gift of free will.

Personally, my information (see refs.) came from other sources that I consider to be reputable (for many reasons), as concerns the order of the (Grand) Universe and the details of the being we think of as God. This information however does not, in any way, stop me from aligning with the Laws descending upon us now, and having their origins in the Bible, for the benefit of us all.

And for what it’s worth, God’s Law essentially can be boiled down to one simple, fair and unobtrusive Law and that is: We all have the absolute right to Life, Liberty & Property as long as we don’t interfere with someone else’s right to Life, Liberty & Property. This is a simple, conclusive fact that we all can surely agree upon.

The key here is that many folks can no longer say that their jobs or ‘professions’ fully align with this Law. Here it is that we have the ‘transition phase’.

An Example

One example, to illustrate the coming of Truth to the planet is the understanding of how ‘usury’ is used on the planet. Most, if not all of us have been willing participants in the application of usury, all the while thinking that it is a normal condition of our existence. The references below as to the use of interest (making money from nothing but money) state clearly how it is against God’s Law. It actually doesn’t even make sense when you think about it.

While many of us throughout our lives have utilized the advantages of interest earnings, like many other things during this transition phase, we come to the understanding that usury is none other than a tool to transfer money from those who 'have not' to those who 'have'.

Conclusion

The ever-increasing rapidity of Truth-Emergence during this transition phase of evolution, is illustrated clearly by understanding how usury has been both a fictitious concept (making something out of nothing vs. sweat equity) and something that has enabled the globalist agenda to take advantage of an unsuspecting population.

Many other Truths currently give us the answers to other falsehoods that are bearing down heavily upon us all and which contribute to the decreasing freedom & peace of the masses.

This is not a negative understanding but rather a sum total beneficial process, in keeping with the precept, "You can't fix something if you don't know its broken!"

As mentioned previously, all members of humanity have the free will choice, during this transitional phase, to align with Truth & Love, or (continue) to deny it. The imminent & eternal condition that a planet will ultimately go through is known as being Settled in Light & Life. It is not hard to see this process in full swing currently and that it is increasing every hour (unless of course one only looks at mainstream media).
