International Racing Tip Sheet XV
“Follow the Jockey”
August
York Ebor Festival

he third and last of the major High Summer UK racing festival begins at York on Wednesday. This is the meeting for the racing connoisseurs and it is run on the Britain's best racecourse, known as the Knavesmire. I will try to tip as many races as possible, though at the time of writing and submitting this Tip sheet (7 am UK Wed), I will not have declarations for the Friday and Saturday cards. However, the fields should be taking shape and I will list a few opinions here. Work time constraints mean I cannot write paragraphs explaining my picks. I will try to pen a Part II on Friday, but I am flying to Oslo on Friday to attend the Norsk Derby aka Norwegian Derby at Øvrevoll on Sunday, so wish me luck playing the Pick 5 and Pick 6 and collecting the Kroner in Scandinavia. I will posting from Øvrevoll on their biggest of the day, so maybe follow my Twitter account on Sunday. British champion jockey Sylvester de Sousa has a nice book of rides in Norway and that's the jockey I'll be following. Maybe some of your ADWs will cover it.
