

Forest Farms Baseline Membership Benefits:

Members will enjoy the following baseline benefits:

1. Access to land. Access to approximately 20 acres for hiking, camping, and other recreational activities. Members will have access to the land from dawn until dusk, exclusive of camping days.
2. Camping days. Two (2) nights of camping per month in designated camping areas. Separate personal camping areas are available at an extra cost.
3. Community Garden and Garden Plots. Use of the community garden plot for group gardening projects and activities supporting Forest Farm's Garden Plan (currently under development). Members may establish a community-supported agriculture (CSA) program and receive a weekly share of fresh produce grown on the land. Individual garden plots are available at an extra cost.
4. Guests. Bring two guests per month onto the land, provided that they comply with all relevant rules and guidelines. Additional guests will be $25 per guest per visit.
5. Educational Programs. Participate in free or discounted educational programs organized by Forest Farms and other members, on topics like composting, beekeeping, baking, art, or woodworking.
6. Special Events. Attend free special events and celebrations organized by Forest Farms, such as seasonal festivals or community meals.
7. Reserve Spaces. Priority access and discounted rates to reserve Smith-Forbes Great Room, Ceremony Field, Barn, Pond Meadow, and camping/glamping sites, for events and activities, such as weddings and workshops.
8. Communal Equipment. Access communal tools or equipment provided by Forest Farms or other members for gardening or other activities, as long as they are legal and do not create risks to others or the land. Eventually, members may organize a tool-lending library or seed exchange program to support their gardening and farming efforts. Members may elect to pay usage or storage fees to keep personal equipment or livestock at the farm.
9. Get Updates. Receive periodic updates and communications about news, events, and opportunities related to Forest Farms.
