The “Man of God” Course Week 1

The greatest calling and the greatest title that can ever be bestowed upon any man is the calling and the title of “Man of God.” Today, in every house, in every family, in every city, and every town, there is a need for men of God. Sadly, there seems to be a drought... a famine, of men of God. Statistics show that if a father turns to Christ, he is 93% more likely to lead his family to Christ. The percentages for a wife or even a child to lead their family to Christ are much less. We know that God is able to use anyone, but we can never neglect the importance of a man of God in the family. We believe that if God raises up men, He will raise up women, He will raise up families of God, for the glory of God.

What does it mean to be a man of God? It means to put away immature and childish things and live for what really matters. Being a man of God means to be serious about life, about business, about family, and about the work of the Lord. The work of the Lord comes after those things in a man's life because if he never learned those things... the basics of what manhood is all about, managing his own life and household, he will never be able to manage the household of God. (1 Timothy 3:4-5.)

Before one can become a man of God, he must first become a man. Being a man of God is not about age; it's about maturity. There are boys who are men of God, and there are believers who are grown men who are not men at all, since they fail to do what men are called to do. This must be repented of. Many of us have manned up in life at some point or another, and yet we find that some are content with being men in the world but childish in the things of God. We believe that in the same way we manned up for the world, it's also time to man up for God. For us, becoming a man means stepping up. For Jesus, becoming a man meant stepping down. Therefore, the question is, since He stepped down for us, isn't it time we step up for Him? “When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things.” 1 Corinthians 13:11 (NKJV)

Men of God put away childish things!
