

Mr. G

That fucking article is full of so much bullshit

You showed someone a picture of my abs

"Made out" wtf

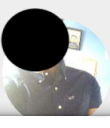

30 minutes ago

Oh but no one talks about the mental strain it's put on you. No one talks about how even after all the shit you're still full of love and generosity.

I fucking hate the world.

That's it. Packing my shit. I'm leaving.

The article tells me what I already knew. The heart of everything is my inaccurate and sarcastic filled statement

The article was written so badly. Fuck

R✓

I can counter all of that with what I have

R✓

I know it was

R✓

The sci report will be written in the same way

R✓

I think that pic reference was from when you told me to look at your Fitbit profile

You had a shirtless pic on that and I opened it with Cruz very close by and told her that you just had me look at an inappropriate pic of you

When they told me you had one of me I couldn't believe that shit. I thought maybe you got it off D

R✓

I don't rmr saying anything about your abs but if I had, it wasn't in a sexual way. It would've been in a "hey, his abs are coming along" kind of way bc you had been working on them

R✓

No, not from d

But Cruz said she was only questioned by them in February and only about C 's senior trip

I'm so pissed now. Now I gotta go into work all mad and shit

And now someone just tagged Braxton on FB in the article

R✓

I'm glad I at least gave her a heads up about it on Friday.

Today @ 5:45 PM

She talk to you?

R✓

No. I'm curious to see what she does about it being on your timeline. It was tagged by someone she knows personally, not professionally.

R✓

She already knew my statement to investigators was not the entire story. She's know

She already knew my statement to investigators was not the entire story. She's know since the beginning so the content of the article won't be a surprise

At least you know who your real friends are

I talked with N

R✓

What you tell him

R✓

Ashleigh checked in with me. She didn't know it was out today. She also has known since the beginning. Just my 4 girls knew. Ash is working summer school so she'll hear more about
