Ashleigh checked in with me. She didn't know it was out today. She also has known since the beginning. Just my 4 girls knew. Ash is working summer school so she'll hear more about it in school

What had you told N  about how it happened

Yeah I did

I told him how it actually
happened

When did you tell him

After the investigation

He knows that you never seduced me & shit. He knows you didn't mean harm

& D  said she texted
you

Please. Ignore the comments. Stop reading everything people are saying. You don't need that right now

I don't think Braxton even knows that's on her page right now

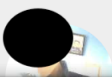

She woulda shut them up already

I can't imagine her keeping it there and letting them go on and on about me like that knowing what she knows

I feel so sick

Stop reading it. Please, just stop

I can only imagine what the private msgs from teachers I worked with look like

Just stop. You're not gonna be able to sleep
tonight

R✓

I already know I won't be able to

It's just those fucking
teachers

It's just those fucking

& complete fucking
strangers that don't know
a real thing about you

You know the real you. I know the real you. Your friends know the real you
