St. Lawrence Chamber of Commerce Welcomed Six New Members in August

CANTON — The St. Lawrence County Chamber of Commerce continues to grow with the addition of six new members in August.

"New members drive our growth, and our new members will find benefits with the Chamber that will help them grow," St. Lawrence County Chamber of Commerce Executive Director Ben Dixon said. "We are thrilled to have these six unique and remarkable entities join us as partners in enhancing the North Country's vitality."

The new businesses on the Chamber's roster include The Claire House, a Haunted Bed & Breakfast in Ogdensburg; Seaway Smokehouse and Catering in Lisbon; Red Barn Pottery in Brushton; the SUNY ESF Ranger School in Wanakena; Signal Stream Inc. in Ogdensburg; and Willow View Property in Canton.

The Claire House Haunted Bed & Breakfast, 709 Franklin St., Ogdensburg, offers a chance to step back in time. The historic bed and breakfast was famously featured on the Ghost Hunters TV show. Guests enjoy the charm of a beautifully preserved Victorian home, cozy accommodations, and a touch of the unexplained. Whether guests come for the history, the hospitality, or the haunted happenings, The Claire House offers a one-of-a-kind stay that blends comfort with curiosity.

At Seaway Smokehouse and Catering, 11421 State Route 37, Lisbon, the approach is simple: exceptional food, generous portions, great people, and attention to detail. Now in its 18th year, the Seaway Smokehouse and Catering offers an in-house restaurant menu serving southern BBQ, a robust char-grill menu, and elevated classics that will please all palates. When it comes to events, the Seaway Smokehouse and Catering is more than just a caterer. From the moment they reach out, everything is customized to the customer's needs. No menu is too gourmet, no request is too much, and no detail goes unaddressed. In addition, as of the Summer 2025, the catering bus known as "Phineas" is now food-truck certified and ready to serve up some of the "good stuff" at any event. Tucked away on the east branch of the Oswegatchie River in Wanakena, the SUNY-ESF Ranger School offers more than a degree — it provides a hands-on education in the heart of the Adirondacks. Established in 1912, the school is affiliated with the State University of New York College of Environmental Science and Forestry. Students can earn an Associate of Applied Science degree in forestry, land surveying, or natural resources management. What sets the Ranger School apart is its immersive approach. Students get their hands dirty, working alongside faculty in the school's 2,800-acre campus. They tackle real-world projects, from monitoring the growth of centuries-old tree stands to studying forests recovering from devastating storms. To learn more, you can contact the school at 315-470-6500.

Chimera Integration Joins St. Lawrence County Chamber Leadership Circle

CANTON — Chimera Integration, a leading security systems provider, has joined the St. Lawrence County Chamber of Commerce Leadership Circle, reinforcing its commitment to the local business community and regional economic development.

Founded over a decade ago by Casey White in Syracuse, Chimera Integration has grown from a small startup to the largest security integrator in New York State. The company now spans multiple locations across the state, including a significant presence in Potsdam, and employs over 60 professionals. In 2024, Chimera was recognized as the number one security integration company in North America, a testament to its innovative approach and exceptional service.

Chimera specializes in customizable security solutions for diverse clients, ranging from small businesses to large organizations like Kinney Drugs, Clarkson University, and Alcoa. Their comprehensive services include advanced security systems, nurse call systems, fire alarms, door access controls, and cutting-edge technologies like facial recognition and weapon detection.

Chimera fits well in St. Lawrence County, Sales Engineer Rob Lafaver said, because Chimera is a family-owned business that puts family first and business second.

"St. Lawrence County is a large county, but it's a very close-knit community," Lafaver said. "A lot of business around here is word of mouth. If you treat your next-door neighbor great, they tell their next-door neighbor, and it just continues."

By joining the Leadership Circle, Chimera demonstrates its dedication to supporting local economic development. The Leadership Circle provides members with unique opportunities to invest directly in the region's business ecosystem, promoting job creation and community prosperity.

Chamber Executive Director Ben Dixon highlighted the significance of Chimera's involvement: "We are thrilled to have Chimera Integrations as a platinum member of the Chamber's Leadership Circle. This rapidly growing company provides important and exceptional services to other businesses in the region, and we are already collaborating with them on everything from business connections to workforce development. Chimera's participation in the Leadership Circle demonstrates their inherent commitment to giving back to the community and promoting the region's business success. Members of the Leadership Circle, like Chimera, are critical partners in supporting our work to make St. Lawrence County a great place to live, invest, work, play and raise a family."

Leadership Circle membership offers Chimera enhanced business visibility, priority sponsorship opportunities, and recognition for its community investment. The company will gain increased networking opportunities and a platform to showcase its innovative security solutions while supporting the Chamber's mission to make St. Lawrence County an attractive place to live, work, and do business.

Lafaver said every employee for Chimera in St. Lawrence County was born and raised in St. Lawrence County. Lafaver is a native of Canton.

For Chimera, joining the Leadership Circle is more than a business decision—it's a commitment to the community that has supported its growth. As a family-centered business with deep local roots, they see this membership as an opportunity to contribute to the region's continued success.
