

Pike County Scene

Rosalind A. Stanley, Bureau Chief

Phone
432-5666

Box 2027
Pikeville, Ky.

Office In Weddington Theatre Bldg.
Second Street
Pikeville, Ky.

News of Pikeville, Pike Co. & Ky.

— Marguerite Weber is she instructed over the years at Pikeville College. the many art students ing childless, adopted the ville College as their id were the Webers in the of Pikeville, that streets and a public party tossed their citizenship.

often said that she had owned three times,
the rest of her days,
bles save some precious ons.

years in Pikeville, many friends. People by her vast first-hand
ry. Many times she was lecture and she end of her search for living in America meant ber her warmth and her humor that never failed er papers after her death Parable of ism."

own two cows, you give or;
you own two cows, give nment and the govern-
ne milk;
keep the cows, give the nment and they sell it shoot one cow, milk the milk down the drain;

Nazism-The government shoots you and keeps the cows;

Capitolism-You sell one cow and buy a bull.

Arkady Weber died in 1975, the same year that Marguerite retired from Pikeville College, and is buried in Johnson Memorial Park, Pikeville.

Marguerite Weber died a week ago today, only a couple of hours after her 80th birthday on May 31, 1980. She is buried beside her husband.