

ELEVENTH HOUR UPDATE

Hello and Happy May, to all the members of Lodge 2576 Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. May is the month where the trees bloom and the air is filled with life from the pollinating flowers, trees bringing the circle of life in full display in front of your eyes. It is also the time to reflect on what makes our lives fulfilled the gathering of family and friends for the weekend cookout or traveling on vacation. Or just knowing the excitement of seeing your Kids or your grandchildren for the day what a joy to the heart that we all feel.

May at the lodge is heating up to be fun filled with lots to do, Friday night dinners are back. PER Dinner is on the 6th of May, then Friday the 13th, 20th, 27th. Cinco De Mayo Thursday May 5th drink specials from 3pm till close. Our outside pavilion will be starting to open on Wednesday's and Friday's weather permitting. We are excited to see you at the lodge, bring your family or friends in to see all that goes on. Make sure to check out May's Calendar in this newsletter. Or sign in front of lodge to keep updated on all the events taking place throughout the month.

We need Volunteers to help and lend a hand at the lodge, from kitchen help to volunteering for an event to volunteering on a committee. We are not asking for a long-term commitment but an hour every now and then, that is what makes us the best lodge and shows others what a strong lodge operates like.

I would now like to recognize My Elk of The Month for May 2022, it has two parts a Husband-and-Wife team. That shows what it means to walk the walk and volunteer in our kitchen and are always up for a conversation. They are Randy and Amy Harmon they are what it means to be a Good Elk and lead by example. So, when you see Randy or Amy, please go up to them and extend a handshake of gratitude.

Sincerely,

William Ray Wilson Jr
