November 2021

ELEVENTH HOUR UPDATE

Welcome to November, a month which is focused on giving thanks and kicking off the holiday season. It is a time where the temperatures start falling, as do the leaves, and we begin to spend more time with our friends and families at each other's homes and, of course, the Lodge.

In a couple of weeks, we will celebrate Veterans Day and strive to properly honor our veterans and active-duty military. Our Order is proud of our pledge that "So long as there are veterans, the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks will never forget them." Our state association sponsors two veterans' projects – Army of Hope and Welcome Home – and more information can be found on them through our state's website: www.mddedcelks.org. One part of our Lodge's remembrance work will be to hold our annual Veterans' Day Steak Friday Night Dinner on November 12th . As always, our veterans and active-duty military will eat for free, as our way of saying "thank you."

We will also be celebrating Thanksgiving Day this month, and so that our wonderful bartenders can spend the time with their families, the Lodge will be closed on Thanksgiving Day. We hope that everyone can find time to gather with family and friends to give thanks for the blessings in their life.

That said, is anyone else wondering where October went? I swear it passed us by in an hour, but maybe that is because we had so many things happening around the Lodge. As a Lodge, we have always taken pride in being an active Lodge, and our October took that to another level. We had multiple instances where we had activities in three different sections of the property at the same time, an incredible Trunk-or-Treat, our annual Halloween Party, one of the biggest Friday Night Dinners we have had in years, and the best Crab Feast around. It is heart-warming to see us finally returning to the full slate of events we had prior to the lockdowns.

The last remaining event we have to restart is our Cash Bash, and we are now formally announcing its return on Saturday, April 2nd . We are digging deep to return the Cash Bash to its original glory, with a myriad of games, lots of food, music, draft beer, and big payouts! Tickets will be on sale within a week, and we recommend that you don't wait until the last minute, as once they are gone, they are gone. If you have questions about the event, reach out to Jimmy Cox, Wade Lober, Cleveland Sweeney, George Tunnicliff, or me.

None of those October events, the Cash Bash, nor any other Lodge activities, could be successful without the efforts of our volunteers. To those who have volunteered this year, I cannot thank you enough for all that you have done for our Lodge and Order. For those who have not volunteered, I ask that you consider helping out in one of our next activities and learning just how much fun we have behind the scenes.

For this month's Elk of the Month, I am selecting someone who stepped up to volunteer in our kitchen, and has made a significant impact almost overnight. Bert Maisel, sincerely appreciate your efforts, and I hope that you enjoy the parking spot.

Fraternally,

Richard J. Frere Exalted Ruler

RULES

- Each player receives at least 3 chips. Players take it in turn to roll three six-sided dice, each of which is marked with "L", "C", "R" on one side, and a single dot on the three remaining sides. For each "L" or "R" thrown, the player must pass one chip to the player to their left or right, respectively. A "C" indicates a chip to the center (pot). A dot has no effect.
- If a player has fewer than three chips left, they are still in the game but their number of chips is the number of dice they roll on their turn, rather than rolling all three. When a player has zero chips, they pass the dice on their turn, but may receive chips from others and take their next turn accordingly. The player who does not receive chips after two passes is out of the game. The winner is the last player with chips left.
