ELEVENTH HOUR UPDATE

Welcome to October. The fall breezes have started to cool us down from the summer's heat as we swing into autumn. The return of fall means the return of more activities such as our Cornhole and Shuffleboard Leagues, weekly Shotgun Bingo and Turkey Shoot, monthly Sunday Breakfast, holiday parties, and of course, our annual Crab Feast. As busy as our Lodge is, we are all exemplifying the motto "A Good Elk is an Active Elk."

To me, autumn is also prime time for sports. With baseball's playoffs, the heart of the college football season, the NFL underway, and the NHL about to start, there will always be some good sports action to watch at the Lodge. So, instead of driving to Baltimore or DC for the games, save yourself time, money, and stress, and join your fellow Elks at the Lodge instead.

Before covering this month's events, I would like to thank everyone who made our Oktoberfest a success. To Sharon & Cleveland, Kim, John & Angela, Mike, Mike, Sheila, Sharon, Rachael & Morgan, Katie & Steve, two brand new members – Jason and Adam, and everyone else who helped out with the event, I sincerely appreciate your efforts!

Looking ahead, this month's main event, our Crab Feast, will include the return of a cake auction as part of the event, so please let an officer know if you are willing to donate a cake. Our popular Trunk or Treat and Halloween Party also return this month, and each of the events promises to be a scary good time. Finally, our Scholarship Golf Tournament returns November 1st, and we are still looking for sponsors and golfers. Please speak with Sharon, Cleveland, Linda Austin, or me if you can participate.

For this month's Elk of the Month, I am truly spoiled for choice, thanks to all of you who have been stepping up to volunteer around the Lodge. Last month, we moved forward with a minor project to help improve the safety of the shooting line of our world-famous Turkey Shoot. When I received the pictures of the work in progress, I was happy to see a number of familiar faces, some of whom have already been dubbed Elk of the Month over the past few years, and a few who are well overdue. For this month, I am recognizing Woody, Dave, and Tom for all that they have done for the Turkey Shoot over the years, and continuing to improve one of our most popular activities. Enjoy sharing the parking space, guys!

Fraternally,

RULES

- Each player receives at least 3 chips. Players take it in turn to roll three six-sided dice, each of which is marked with "L", "C", "R" on one side, and a single dot on the three remaining sides. For each "L" or "R" thrown, the player must pass one chip to the player to their left or right, respectively. A "C" indicates a chip to the center (pot). A dot has no effect.
- If a player has fewer than three chips left, they are still in the game but their number of chips is the number of dice they roll on their turn, rather than rolling all three. When a player has zero chips, they pass the dice on their turn, but may receive chips from others and take their next turn accordingly. The player who does not receive chips after two passes is out of the game. The winner is the last player with chips left.
