

You're Invited!

KCAS presents our

Basic Lab Skills Workshop

Mar 9th, 2019 • 8:30am-2:30pm

Who should attend?

Undergraduate Junior and Seniors
Majoring in Science

This workshop will focus on pipette verification and use, colorimetric plate preparation and analysis as well as the preparation and analysis of drug products using mass spectrometry (LC-MS/MS).

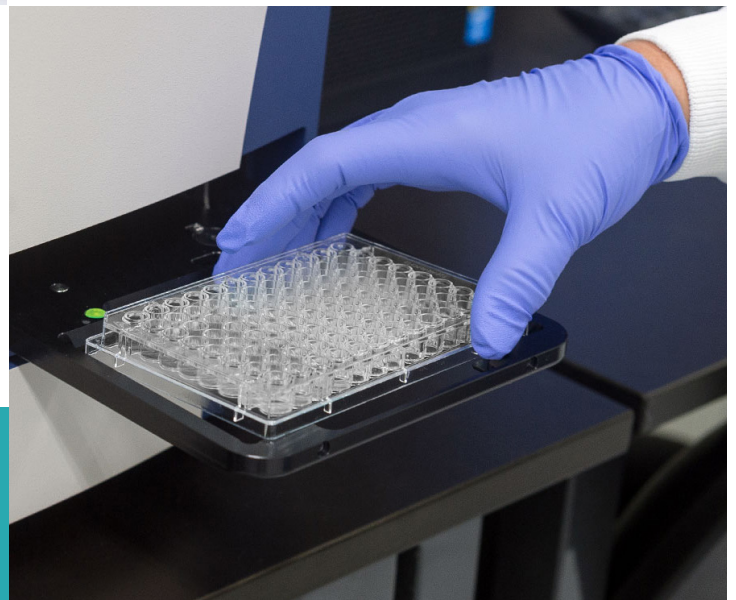

Work hands on with experienced scientist on basic laboratory skills applicable to industry.

Students will receive a laboratory notebook to document their work throughout the workshop along with a certificate of completion.

Please click here to RSVP by Mar 01, 2019!

KCAS is a progressive growing contract research organization of well over 100 talented and dedicated individuals committed to serving our clients and improving health worldwide. Our experienced scientists provide stand-alone bioanalytical services to the Pharmaceutical, Biopharmaceutical, Animal Health and Medical Device industries.

(913) 248-3000 • kcasbio.com