3. The following guests will present:

a. Megan McCracken, Food Recovery Network

- i. She is trying to bring composting to the TCU campus. She has approval to start in the Greek Village and the Zeta Tau Alpha house is going to start on Feb. 1. She wants to expand this movement to other houses.
- ii. Food Recovery Network works on the recovery level. They recovered about 11,000 pounds from Market Square. Composting does not produce methane and it yields soil.
- iii. In the spring of 2018, each sorority will have the choice to opt in to this program. They will come to each house and educate members on what this program entails. House managers could assume this role or it could be offered as service hours.
- iv. Need decisions by next Wednesday.
- v. Any questions can be directed to Megan, m.l.mccracken@tcu.edu

b. Kenny White, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.

- i. Stroll Like an Alpha informational
- ii. Three brothers of the chapter act as coaches for each team. There are about 1-2 practices each week to learn how to swag walk and stroll, among other things. The women are given full choice on outfits and choreography.
- iii. The teams are organized by a draft: women register on OrgSync and put on a list of all women and put into groups of three. There are about 8-9 women on each time.
- iv. Each woman that participates is required to raise $50 and it will be put towards her charity of choice.
- v. The event will be on March 24.
- vi. Registration deadline is next Wednesday, January 31

  13. Announcements
    - a. The following chapter announcements were made:
      - i. AXΩ – Hi! Welcome to the Alpha Chi Omega house!! We're so pumped to be able to host the first meeting down here in the greek!! We were founded in 1885 at DePauw University. Our colors are crimson red and olive green. Our symbol is the red carnation and the lyre! We constantly strive to "seek the heights" and "find beauty in the common things of life," as our symphony says! We had a great first chapter this past Sunday (Girl Scouts came- YUM!!!!) and this weekend our exec team is meeting with the AXO exec teams from Baylor, SMU, and UT Arlington for a fun lunch up in Dallas!!
      - ii. AΔΠ –
      - iii. AOP – This Saturday all of our officers are going on a leadership retreat which should be really fun! Hope everyone has a great rest of their week!
      - iv. XΩ – This weekend our new members are FINALLY getting initiated and we could not be more excited to celebrate them all week and with a special Sunday brunch! Also, we have our COS spotlight week next week so stay tuned for details on that :)
      - v. ΔΔΔ – We're starting letter writing for Delta Dunkfest. This is one way that we are going to raise money for this event.
      - vi. ΔΓ – Hope everyone had a good first chapter meeting. No announcements for today. My favorite TV show is Parks and Rec.
      - vii. ΓΦΒ – We hope everyone is enjoying the second week of classes and my favorite tv show right now is Friends
      - viii. KAΘ – We are excited for our chapter's semi-annual LEAD program tomorrow night where all our new officers come together and brainstorm ways we can strengthen the chapter and sisterhood as a whole! We can't wait!
      - ix. ΚΚΓ – We hope y'all have a great week!
      - x. ΦΜ – We had a great first chapter and our first sisterhood retreat is coming up!
      - xi. ΠΒΦ – Some of our members started going to Elementary schools to read to children to support our philanthropy, champions are readers! Our First mixer of the year, Woodstock is next weekend!
      - xii. ΣΚ – The only updates from Sigma Kappa is that we had our first chapter meeting last Sunday and it was great to all be back together as a chapter and discuss what exec has planned for this next year!
      - xiii. ZTA – We are looking forward to our Frost mixer this Friday with DG and Sig Ep!! Everyone have a great rest of the week!!
