7. Discussion

2 or 3 event preference round

Kappa Kappa Gamma motions to open the floor

Alpha Delta Pi seconds

E. Andrews: What are your questions? Did you bring it your execs? What are they thinking?

Kappa Alpha Theta; We're really excited about it and it should be a great option for the community and for the PNM herself, giving her a better experience during recruitment.

Alpha Delta Pi; We're all for it.

Alpha Omicron Pi; We are too.

Chi Omega; My advisors are strongly for what we currently have.

Alpha Chi Omega; We also are leaning towards staying with the three to offer more options for the girls at the end of the rounds

Gamma Phi Beta; We support 2 because we think PNMs will be happier in the end.

Pi Beta Phi; We have a question, "Do you know how each day will be broken down?"

B. Scogin; If we switch to 2 it will go 13-9-6-2. It is the recommended format to go to 2. We have a high retaining community so both sides can be argued. I don't have a strong opinion either way. It doesn't feel great to be get your third choice. I don't think we can choose wrong for our community given the uniqueness of TCU.

Technically, the FSL office can determine it but we wanted you all to talk about it.

Alpha Chi Omega; We feel like we don't get to have those conversations as much throughout the week before preference round.

A. Noetzel; Do you think we will see more PNMs drop out between leadership and pref if we change to 2?

B. Scogin; I think we will lose some no matter how we do it. This is all speculation. The ones we will probably lose are the ones who don't like the houses they have left anyways.

Delta Gamma; If we try it out next year and it doesn't work out, could we switch it back?

B. Scogin; For now, this is just what is recommended because they have a lot of data on it. It could be up to discussion later. This is a better year to have this discussion for our campus.

Alpha Chi Omega; Will the number of PNMs coming to preference round be the same?

B. Scogin; Your carrying numbers won't change and you will still have the same number of invitations. The PNMs will just flow through a little differently.

Phi Mu; We are in support of switching.

Zeta Tau Alpha; We want to stay how it

Kappa Kappa Gamma; We are in support of 2.

B. Scogin; The data shows that the PNM experience is better with 2 but TCU is unique in our retention.

S. Gallagher; Do we know how many get their third choice?

B. Scogin; It's like 18 people.

S. Sullivan; Do they end up dropping?

B. Scogin; No, they usually like all of them.
