Lead Abroad) and are also including student trip organizations – these are not TCU organizations, please do not assume that or perpetuate these organizations at the TCU level
    2. Just be aware of this – FSL is working about what to do this
    3. We advise that you don't promote these as there's liability that we do not have
    4. This is not a TCU organization, do not let members think they are – they could be an okay company, but better safe than sorry
