Chapter Spotlight: Alpha Chi Omega

Last month, the TCU chapter of Alpha Chi Omega hosted their 27th annual Real Chic Women Fashion Show benefitting the Tarrant County Women's Center. This year, Alpha Chi Omega raised $115,000 to benefit the men, women, and children of Tarrant County with a wide variety of counseling, advocacy, and support services. Over the last 27 years, TCU Alpha Chi has given more than $700,000 to the promotion of Domestic Violence Awareness, making them one of the top philanthropic chapters in the country!

Real Chic Women brings our community together in a unique way. Participants included men and women from all councils of our Greek community and retail companies from the Fort Worth community loaned clothing for participants to wear.

"The fashion show is an extraordinary philanthropic event. As real strong women, we are dedicated to promoting strong relationships and healthy love. Domestic Violence Awareness is especially meaningful to us because we have the chance to support Tarrant County Women's Center in their mission to empower survivors of domestic violence."

- Vivian Noyd, Fashion Show Communication Chair and VP of Philanthropy

NPC Foundation Scholarships

Every year, the National Panhellenic Council Foundation grants scholarships to outstanding women from our Panhellenic community. This year, there are six scholarship opportunities with awards starting at $1000. Applications are due March 15, 2019. To learn more about each scholarship and their requirements, visit ncpwomen.org

Note From the President

Dear Panhellenic women,

Values month was a huge success, thank you to everyone that participated and celebrated with us. We had so much fun with the Instagram challenge and all of the events we put on throughout the month. March is the beginning of spring, a time of new energy, new life and a good time to tidy up. Some say a clean room is a clean mind. I'm personally a big Marie Kondo fan but do whatever kind of cleaning and organizing works best for you. Organization can help us tackle midterm season and aid in productivity. March is also Spring Break, a time to relax and regroup. I hope everyone has a great month!

Fontana Frazier, Panhellenic President

Values Month Recap

Thank you to everyone who helped us celebrate Panhellenic Values Month throughout February! We had some incredible events, from the Nepal Trek Panel with Circle of Sisterhood to the leadership panel that featured some incredible women from our campus (pictured to the left). Congrats to our four Instagram Challenge winners! Check out why they value Sisterhood, Service, Leadership, and Scholarship on our Instagram @tcupanhellenic!

Even though Values Month has come to a close, we encourage you to strive to live by your values every day!
