COB

Continuous Open Bidding

Continuous Open Bidding, also known as COB, looks very different from primary recruitment. COB is an informal recruitment process that Panhellenic sororities use to recruit new members outside of the designated primary recruitment period to reach Panhellenic Total. For example, if Alpha Alpha Alpha has 250 members for the spring semester and Panhellenic Total is 255, then Alpha Alpha Alpha can offer five COBs if they are interested.
