A counselor and a staff member will be present for each session. However, our hope is that students will engage and lead the dialogues and we would only be there for support and as a resource if needed. Students can attend one or all sessions.”

Disclosure: Masks are required at all in-person events.

DIALOGUES FOR UNDERSTANDING

A space for students to come together to share their thoughts and reflections around national and global issues with the goal to further understand one another and to foster a sense of community.
